Those wishing to address items on the agenda may do so when recognized by the Board President near the beginning of the meeting or when the President requests public comments when the item is being considered. Kim Mitchell – shared her feelings on distance learning from home 2-3 days a week, and how it does not address families who will need to return to work. The impact it puts on the working parents and daycare providers (which is unreasonable to ask of daycare providers). It will be essential that any demands on home education be flexible. Expecting a child to attend timed activities during traditional school hours, such as video conferences, for credit may not be feasible for many families.

BUSD Special Meeting

4.0 REPORTS AND PRESENTATIONS

4.1 Katie Kolker, BUSD Superintendent

4.1.2 Summary of BUSD's First School Reopening Committee Meeting

Katie shared that the survey results showed a vast majority were planning to enroll their students and willing to drive them to school. The recommendations for reopening: face masks for adults, but face masks for the students only last so long before they are touching or moving the masks. Practicing social distancing, modifications to arrival times, focus on mental health are all areas of concern and being discussed. There is a likely hood of having daily wellness checks on our students. The school will have no touch thermometers, handwashing stations (ICOE is helping with these items) available and easily accessible. Recommendations keep changing, so we can't really make a decision on how school will look like right now. We will continue to conferencing with Public Health once a week and keep everyone informed.
