

South Gibson County High School Scholars' Prep Guide 2019-2020

Course: Lifespan Development

Curriculum for the upcoming course and information of which students should be aware:

Lifespan Development builds basic knowledge in human growth and development. Upon completion of the course, proficient students will have knowledge of developmental theory, principles of growth, behavior of children from conception through adolescence, adult development and aging, and death and dying. Artifacts will be created for inclusion in a portfolio, which will continue to build throughout the program of study.

Areas that might be challenging for students:

Students should successfully complete the prerequisite course Introduction to Human Studies.

Suggestions on how students can prepare for the upcoming course:

Students should successfully complete the foundational course, Introduction to Human Studies.

Suggested activities or resources (if applicable):

Beneficial for the student to have an interest in child development and/or human development.

Student interest in psychology or sociology is beneficial.
