

What documentation do I need?

Medical certification by a physician to include:

- The disability of the student and affect on diet
- The major life activity affected by the disability
- The food(s) to be omitted and those that may be substituted
- Recommend yearly update of medical certification to ensure any changes in student's diet prescription is reflected.