

SUPERINTENDENT'S TOP 5 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW THIS WEEK

Friday, April 29, 2022

Gregory J. Pilewski, Ed.D.
Superintendent

1

Capri Salaam Named NLRSD Teacher of the Year

Congratulations to Mrs. Capri Salaam, the 2022 NLRSD Teacher of the Year! Salaam teaches social studies at the Seventh & Eighth Grade Campus. She will represent the district as she competes to become Arkansas Teacher of the Year. Salaam was announced as the NLRSD Teacher of the Year at the Night of Honors. Click on this link to see this year's level winners and pictures from the event.

2

Brook Sanchez Earns Two Coveted Awards in Education

We're so proud of Ms. Brook Sanchez, a science teacher at the Sixth Grade Campus! Sanchez is one of four finalists in the state selected for the Presidential Awards for Excellence in Mathematics and Science Teaching. She is also a Cohort 7 Member of the IMPACT Arkansas Fellowship. Click on this link to read more about Sanchez's accomplishments.

3

Hot Spots Must Be Returned

All students who have received a hotspot from their school or from the Technology Department must return by Tuesday, May 10, 2022. Please return these devices to your student's school. This is extremely important.

4

Terry C. Hartwick Arkansas Scholars Award Celebration

The 20th Annual Terry C. Hartwick Arkansas Scholars Award Celebration will be in-person this year. It will take place on Tuesday, May 3, 2022, beginning at 6:00 p.m. at the Center of Humanities and Arts, located on the campus of the University of Arkansas – Pulaski Technical College. This event is for NLRHS and COE seniors graduating as Arkansas Scholars. Click here for more information.

5

Second Chance for Kindergarten Round-Up

Did you miss Kindergarten Round Up? No problem! Please visit our District Administration Building, located at 2400 Willow Street, from 10:00 a.m. to noon on Saturday, April 30, 2022, to sign up your future kindergartner. The future student must be 5 on or before August 1, 2022. If the potential student lives outside of our zone, families can apply to enroll into our district through School Choice at this link. Please see this link to learn what documents are needed at Kindergarten Round-Up. Help us to spread the word!