1. EMPOWERMENT STATEMENT

As we begin our meeting, let us all be reminded that our primary goal is to empower the Delhi Community to be learners today and leaders tomorrow. We are responsible for fostering equitable learning environments where all children, staff members, and families are respected and valued for who they are. We reject exclusionary practices and understand that we must all work together in order to uplift our community. We will seek to amplify diverse perspectives in support of students, their families, and educators. We will not only listen to concerns and aspirations, but also pledge to make decisions that are mindful of these. In order to foster equitable learning for students, we adopt the following speech: "We love you. We value you. We want you and need you here."
