

After Reading Strategies

Summarize

When you are finished reading, you should always think about what happened in the story or what you learned. When you summarize you should use your own words. Here are some ways you can summarize:

- This book was about....
- This part was about.....
- Tell yourself or someone else a story. Use these words: in the beginning, then, next, finally, and in the end.
- The most important thing I learned was.....because.....

Evaluate

A good reader always thinks about how they feel about what they just read. Pretend you are a book critic. How would you rate this book?

- 5 stars – Super!
- 4 stars – Great!
- 3 stars – Good!
- 2 stars – Just okay.
- 1 star – Not my favorite.

Even if you did not like the book, you should be able to tell what you remember or what you have learned. Here are some ways you can evaluate:

- I think my friend would like this book because.....
- I gave this book ____ stars because....
- I learned.....
- Even though it wasn't my favorite book, I still remember.....
