VOL. 13, NO. 5

POCAHONTAS, ARKANSAS

MARCH 1986

Kristi Luter, Miss Redskin 1986

1986 Miss Redskin Crowned

By Kristie Dismang

Robin Gill, the 1985 Miss Redskin, crowned Kristi Luter the new reigning Miss Redskin 1986, recently.

When asked what went through her mind when they called out her number as the winner, Kristi replied, "I was thinking 'I wish my mom could be here'." Kristi comments, "My mom said I would win, but there was so much beauty and talent I had my doubts."

Kristi, representing the Smoke Signal, performed a humorous rendition of Erma Bombeck's "Survival of the Fittest" from the book If Life is a Bowl of Cherries, What am I doing in the Pits? This oration was an account of an ordinary housewife's everyday life.

Congratulations also go to first runner-up Beth Larsen, who did a highstepping tap dance to "Anchors Away."

The other three finalists were Laura Jackson, Pam Carr, and Tommie Harper.

THE MEASLES: WHO HAS TO HAVE SHOTS?

By Julie Atherton

The recent measles outbreak has been a serious one. Starting in the Fayetteville-Rogers area, the disease spread throughout the state. Because of this, something had to be done. That some-

School personnel recently notified those students who need to be vaccinated. Any student who took the shot before 15 months of age will have to be vaccinated again.

Our faculty focus this issue spotlights Mr. Oliver Stephens, who is taking Mrs. Fender's place for the rest of this school year. He is a graduate of ASU, where he obtained a BSE in social studies.

A hobby that interests him is golf. He served twenty-one years in the Army. During those years, he served in various countries, including Germany, France, Italy, England, Korea, Vietnam, and Japan, just to name a few.
