Finish What You Started

Come Back Butte Charter (CBBC) is a no cost public charter school authorized by the Butte County Board of Education and administered by the Butte County Superintendent of Schools through Butte County Office of Education. CBBC is for students who have not previously experienced success in traditional educational settings. CBBC serves students who are 17 years of age and older who have not completed high school for various reasons.

“The best way to predict your future is to create it.”

-Abraham Lincoln

Why Come Back Butte Charter?

CBBC offers educational services to help students:

- earn a high school diploma, HiSet or equivalency
- develop skills in order to promote in an existing job
- prepare for vocational education or college

Through an independent study program students meet with teachers once a week to discuss their progress as they work at their own pace on-line. The CBBC staff works with each student to set attainable goals and work toward earning a high school diploma, developing skills to prepare for vocational programs, and/or pursuing higher education.

Who are CBBC students?

A Successful CBBC Student:

- Sets realistic goals and perseveres to reach them
- Develops a confident, “I can do this!” attitude
- Realizes that mistakes are opportunities to learn and grow
- Recognizes the need to make sacrifices and reassess priorities
- Always looks for ways to improve self!
