<td>Strict stay at home and social distancing guidelines are put in place, and only essential businesses remain open. Every region has experienced this phase once already and could return to it if mitigation efforts are unsuccessful.</td>
<td>Non-essential retail stores reopen for curbside pickup and delivery. Illinoisans are directed to wear a face covering when outside the home and can begin enjoying additional outdoor activities like golf, boating &amp; fishing while practicing social distancing.</td>
<td>Manufacturing, offices, retail, barbershops and salons can reopen to the public with capacity and other limits and safety precautions. Gatherings of 10 people or fewer are allowed. Face coverings and social distancing are the norm.</td>
<td>Gatherings of 50 people or fewer are allowed, restaurants and bars reopen, travel resumes, child care and schools reopen under guidance from the Illinois Department of Public Health. Face coverings and social distancing are the norm.</td>
<td>The economy fully reopens with safety precautions continuing. Conventions, festivals and large events are permitted, and all businesses, schools and places of recreation can open with new safety guidance and procedures.</td>

Rapid Spread
During this phase, strict stay at home and social distancing guidelines are in place.

• Only essential workers remain on school sites as necessary.
• All students and staff engage in Royal Remote Learning, which includes more rigorous guidelines, based on experiences and feedback from the Spring 2020 experience.
Flattening
During this phase, strict stay at home and social distancing guidelines are in place.

- Only essential workers remain on school sites as necessary.
- All students and staff engage in Royal Remote Learning, which includes more rigorous guidelines, based on experiences and feedback from the Spring 2020 experience.
Recovery

During this phase, social distancing guidelines are in place. Gatherings of 10 people or less in a space are permitted. This means:

- Most students and staff engage in Royal Remote Learning, which includes more rigorous guidelines, based on experiences and feedback from the Spring 2020 experience.
- Some groups on site receiving in person support and/or IDEA related services.
- Some staff members on site as necessary.
- The district follows IHSA and IESA guidelines for athletics and extra-curricular activities.
Revitalization

During this phase, social distancing guidelines are in place to the extent possible. Gatherings of 50 people or less in a space are permitted. This means:

- All students and staff are on site utilizing daily AM/PM blended learning, with the option of full-time Royal Remote Learning for students with identified medical needs or by caregiver request.
- Implement ISBE Transition Part 3 Health & Safety Guidelines.
- The district follows IHSA and IESA guidelines for athletics and extra-curricular activities.
HBR Restored

Return to normal

• Return to “normal” with new public health guidelines in place.
