5. Ideally, school will operate as close to normal as possible. If major modifications to the daily schedule are needed, which of the following would you prefer?

685 responses

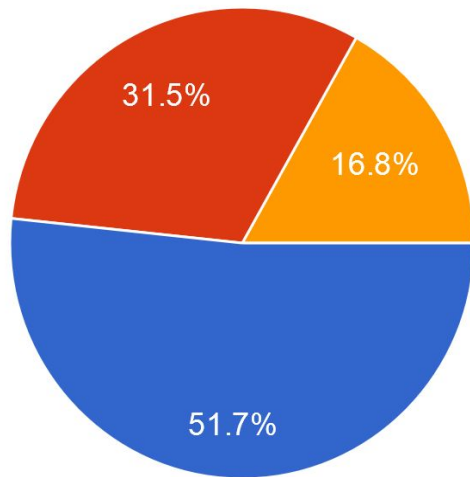

- Attending school physically five days per week with a shortened day to minimize time in the buildings (ex. 5.5 hour days) and numbers of students on school buses
- A "blended learning" approach -- Attending school physically 2-3 days per week with remote learning on the other days
- All remote learning

6. If school was forced to close again and we had to resort to remote learning, which of the following best describes your view of that?

689 responses

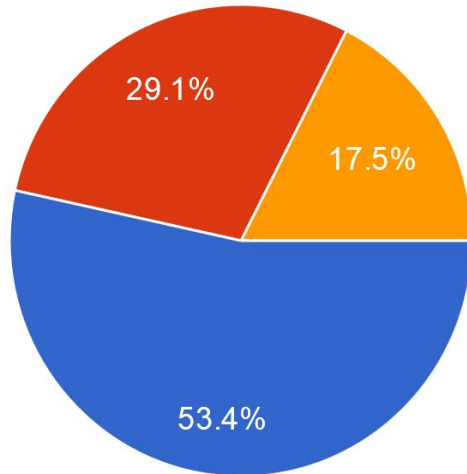

- We could manage remote learning without major issues.
- We could manage remote learning, but would have to make significant adjustments at home.
- We would have a very difficult time managing remote learning. It creates a significant conflict for our family.
