

The proposed budget below includes ONLY the expenditures necessary to meet the operational needs of Slate Valley's schools in their current configuration for the 2020-2021 school year. It does not include expenditures for a new bond. The district must continue to vote until it has a voter approved budget and will have to borrow to meet short term cash needs at a rate of 1.75%. Statute allows the district to borrow up 87% of the last approved budget. The detailed budget for SVUUSD may be found by going to www.slatevalleyunified.org.

On July 1, 2019 Addison Rutland Supervisory Union and all of the member school districts merged and became the Slate Valley Unified Union School District (SVUJUVT). The budget above summarizes all of the expenditures for SVUUSD which was a new entity in FY20. In 2014 the VT Legislature resolved that school districts in the state must follow a uniform chart of accounts (UCOA). The SVUUSD has been moving toward the UCOA over the last 2 years. Some of the increases and decreases above are due to the aligning the FY21 budget with the VT UCOA.
