

RCS thrives on and depends upon its community partners. We are still seeking the support of our community and parents but we must be conscious of everyone who enters the building. We will conduct illness screenings for all who come into the building, and all visitors will be required to wear face masks. According to the governor's direction, we must limit the number of visitors in the building.