

Learning Options in USD 487

In Person Learning

Upcoming Dates

This option is available to students/families unless/until attendance restrictions are put in place by the County Health Officer.

Blended/Hybrid Learning

Upcoming Dates

This option will be available to students/families if in person attendance restrictions are put in place, if the family chooses to change their Learning option from remote to in person, or from in person to remote.

Remote Learning

This option is available to students/families who are not comfortable with an in person attendance. Classroom instruction may be live streamed and/or recorded for future access, teacher support will occur through teleconference, phone call, and/or email. Electronic device and textbooks will be provided by the district.