The screenshot shows a user interface for 'JAMES DELAZZARI > Notification Preferences'. On the left is a dark sidebar with icons and labels for 'Account', 'Dashboard', 'Courses', 'Calendar', 'Inbox', and 'Commons'. The main content area has a blue 'Notifications' header and a list of notification categories: 'Profile', 'Files', 'Settings', and 'ePortfolios'. Below this is a 'Course Activities' section with a table containing rows for 'Due Date', 'Grading Policies', 'Course Content', 'Files', 'Announcement', 'Announcement Created By You', and 'Grading'. The 'Grading' row has a checked checkbox and descriptive text. Three red arrows with yellow numbers point to the 'Account' icon in the sidebar (arrow 1), the 'Notifications' header (arrow 2), and the 'Grading' row in the table (arrow 3).
