

School Building Administration

The principal is responsible for assigning to teachers the various necessary duties. Teachers are expected to maintain adequate accounting procedures for supplies, material workbooks, and texts to insure that these items are judiciously expended and that proper care is exercised in utilizing public money for educational endeavors.