Dear Parent/Guardian:

School districts receiving federal education funds are required to provide, on request by military recruiters or an institution of higher education, access to secondary school students' names, address, email address, and telephone listings unless access to such information has been restricted by the secondary school student or the student's parents/guardians. School districts are also required to notify secondary students and their parents/guardians of their right to request that the name, address, and telephone number of the student not be released without prior written consent.

If you do not want your child's name, address, email, or telephone number released to military recruiters or institutions of higher education without your written consent, please sign the bottom half of this letter and return it to the District Office by Friday, September 8, 2023.

I request that the name, address, email, and telephone number of (student's name)

not be released to military recruiters

not be released to institutions of higher education without my written consent.
