The employer will verify all information given and is not responsible for false information. The employee will be terminated if any information has been falsified.

If selected for a teaching position, I agree to continually strive, plan, and work for the improvement of the school system as a whole, and the children under my supervision in particular. I further agree that while I am an employee, I will support the policies of the governing board, and I will work with and be loyal to the supervisors, principal, superintendent, and other school officials as elected or appointed by the governing board. My failure to do so will be justifiable grounds for dismissal.
