

PALOS HEIGHTS LIBRARY AT-HOME LEARNING RESOURCES

Head of Youth and Teen Services

Tina Ruzala

tinar@phlibrary.org

HOW CAN WE HELP?

- Pre-recorded storytimes and library programs available on the library YouTube page
- Parenting collection with homeschooling materials and workbooks
- STEAM Kits*
- Book Requests by topic or title
- Extra copies of the currently nominated Illinois Reader Choice Award books*
- Lynda.com: An online learning resource offering more than 4,000 courses covering technical skills, creative techniques, business strategies, and more*

E-RESOURCES*

Tutor.com

Connects users to a live online tutoring service for students in grades K-12, those in introductory-level college courses, and adult learners (at no charge).

Explora Primary Schools

Aimed for the primary school student, this is a user-friendly interface for content found in Searchasaurus and Kids Search,

Explora Public Libraries

Search popular magazine articles, encyclopedias, subject specific works, primary source documents, and videos. Browse topic areas for research papers.

Learning Express Library

Practice tests, exercises, skill building courses and more.

Mango Languages

Teaches real conversations in over 60 languages.

Media on Demand

An online source used to download ebooks and audiobooks from the library.

Scholastic Go!

An online encyclopedia and news magazine for elementary, middle and high school students.

TumbleBooks

TumbleBook Library is a collection of animated, talking picture books. TumbleBook Cloud offers a collection of videos and chapter books.

World Book

This database includes both the World Book Encyclopedia and Research Libraries.

FOR MORE INFORMATION
CONTACT US BY PHONE OR EMAIL:
PHONE: 708-448-1473
EMAIL: YOUTH@PHLIBRARY.ORG

*E-resources are available to Palos Heights residents with a valid Palos Heights Library card.

Patrons must have a valid library card from their home library to check out materials.