- 275 Conference and Mound City Activity Passes Accepted (not allowed at Mound City Tournament or MSHSAA Sponsored Post Season Events)
  - Activity Passes = $40 Adults, $30 Students, or $100 for Family Pass
- Bleacher Seating will be available, but social distancing and seating in family groups is encouraged
- Student Sections WILL be allowed, but masks required if cannot social distance
- Concession Stand will be open, but limited to Hot Dogs, Candy, and Drinks (Exact Change is encouraged if possible to limit contact)
- Masks are recommended, but not required

Football Guidelines

- Bleacher Seating is available, but social distancing and seating in family groups is encouraged
- Fans are encouraged to bring their lawn chairs if they would rather not sit in the bleachers to help with social distancing. Lawn Chairs will be allowed on the North and South sides of the bleachers, but not in front of the bleachers (between bleachers and the track/field)
- Vehicle parking will not be allowed at the guard rail (area will be reserved for lawn chairs)
- Handicap Parking Spots are still available on the North and South sides of the Press Box on the concrete pad (handicap license plate or window hang required)
- Mound City R-2 Band will be in the designated area on the South side of the bleachers

Volleyball Guidelines

- Bleacher seating will be available, but social distancing and seating in family groups is encouraged
- In areas in which social distancing cannot occur it is recommended that participants wear masks.

Activity Pass Questions

- Activity Passes may be purchased through the HS Office. In the event that games/contests get cancelled due to COVID-19, Mound City R-2 will look at the number of contests that were hosted throughout the entire school year to determine if reimbursement will occur.
