

BSD Facebook Community Guidelines

The Booneville School District Facebook page is intended to serve as a resource for students, families, district employees, and the general public. We expect interactions to always be respectful, encourage users to share and show their support for the district, and promote positivity and kindness.

BSD will strive, but is not obligated, to respond to comments. If a comment is made outside of regular business hours, BSD will strive to respond the following business day during regular business hours.

BSD reserves the right to remove content that includes personnel information, individually identifiable student information, spam, language that is obscene, sexual, defamatory, harassing, discriminatory, vulgar, and violent or threatening.

These guidelines apply to the official BSD social media profiles listed below.

Booneville Public Schools
Booneville Elementary School Family
Booneville Junior High Family
