CHROMEBOOK AND REMOTE DAYS PROCEDURES

Students should be logging into their schoology account for course directions and academic instruction. Follow the student schedule and bell schedule to know what courses to attend and at what times during remote instruction.

When students are at home, please remember that all students are expected to log into their Chromebooks with enough time to be present for period one and every subsequent period on days during which they receive remote instruction, not including study hall or lunch.

Chromebook Reminders:

- Students need to bring their Chromebooks back and forth between school and home.
- Students also need to bring their chargers back and forth between school and home.
- Students need to charge their Chromebooks nightly.
- Students need to use earbuds/headphones with microphones that they bring back and forth between school and home.

There will be two sessions during which parents/guardians of full remote students may pick up materials needed for academic instruction.

- Remote students that do not have a school device already allocated to them will be issued a device. Please bring a government issued ID and student 9-digit number.
- Any academic materials and 2019-2020 DMS yearbooks that were ordered last year will be available for pick up.

Thursday, 9/17 (1-2pm)	Location: High School Front Entrance
Friday, 9/18 (3-4pm)	Location: High School Front Entrance

BREAKFAST AND LUNCH

Breakfast and lunch is free for all students until December 31, 2020. Please still send in your free/reduced lunch application if you believe you are eligible. Breakfast and lunch will be available in the cafe to students attending in person instruction.

Breakfast and lunch will be available daily to students attending remote instruction, Monday through Friday, between the hours of 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. Parents will use our drive through pick up service at the Cayuga Heights Elementary loop in the back of the elementary school.

Please review the HS Student/Parent Handbook and the important reminders and tips in the attachment with your child. Thank you for your partnership and continued support to help make the 2020-2021 school year at Depew High School full of growth and academic success.

Sincerely,

Mr. Lupini
Executive Principal

Mr. Skoczylas
Assistant Principal

Mrs. Fatta
