Announcements

Remember---NO lunch card NO snacks!!!! Also, you must have a positive balance in order to get snacks.

Lady Cats Softball beat Cuba 12-10 last night. JV also had a win against Cuba. Great job Wildcats!

Announcement from the Library! If you are a middle or high school student and has completed any of the Truman or Gateway nominee books, please see Mr. Medley in order to have that recorded so you can vote in the Spring for the winner.

If you are a member or are planning to be a member of the D&D Club, please plan to be at our meeting tonight after school! We will be getting our groups put together; schedules worked out, and play our first sessions.

If you were in high school band last year and are not this year, you need to see Ms. Sherman to turn in your book and instrument (only if you borrowed a school one). If you do not turn in your book/instrument, it will turn into a school fine.

Chess club starts today, September 17 and there will be a church van in front of the buses for transportation to the church.

Update! Attention high schoolers interested in the cheer team! A 1-day camp will be held Monday, October 5th from 9:30am-3:30pm in the field house. You will need to sign up so please see Mrs. Churchill before school in the gym starting September 15. You will need to bring lunch and a water bottle. Wear athletic clothes and shoes! Come experience what it is like to cheer on our Wildcat basketball teams. "

Sophomores & Juniors: Please let Mrs. Wolfe know if you would like to take the PSAT on Wednesday, October 14th. Students wanting to test must pay $17 by Wednesday, September 16th.

If you are not sure if you have turned in all your paperwork to the office, please check the spreadsheet posted on the board outside of Susan's office.
