

Daily Announcements

Today is National Punctuation Day! A celebration of the lowly comma, correctly used quotation marks, and other proper uses of periods, semi-colons, and the ever mysterious ellipsis! Don't remember what any of these things are? Study, check your email, and ask your ELA teachers. Punctuation is so important. Use it correctly. Want to win a PUNCTUATION PRIZE? Check your email for details!

Picture Day is today.

Chess Club: Start date is in October. There will be a brief informational meeting on Thursday, 10/01/2020, at 3:00p on Zoom. Look for an email in your inbox with more information, if you are interested.

Students: We have another new club starting this year. It is called the Newspaper Club. The Newspaper Club will create a monthly newspaper about things going on in and around IJHS. Your Social Studies teacher will have forms in class.

Tomorrow is Spirit Day, since the Cubs play the Sox this weekend, which will be Cubs/Sox/Baseball, instead of red, white, and blue. Wear at least one clothing item that has a baseball team logo or name on it to be counted for your grade level. HATS ARE NOT INCLUDED. Last Spirit Day, 8th grade finished first, 6th grade second, and 7th grade finished last.

Students: Please continue to practice your social distancing at all times.

Acceptable Use Policy Forms are due in the office now.

Student Council elections will be held the week of October 5th; that's in less than two weeks! If you are interested in running for Student Council, permission slips will be available from your Social Studies teacher.

Fishing Club: IJHS is excited to announce that we have a new club this year and that's Fishing Club! sponsored by Mr. Mahoney and Mr. Janotta. Anyone who is interested in joining the Fishing Club, there will be a virtual meeting this week. If you are interested, permission slips will be available from your Social Studies teacher.