B-Club: Zach McRae A club for varsity letterman that do community service and paint the B as well as plan other community/school projects

Youth Leg: John Hansen Is a student led simulation at the Capitol that engages students in the legislative process. Students assume the various roles in the state government and work to pass legislation into law

Student Government: Camy Paffhausen student council and class officers

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA): Kim Konen a national Career and Technical Student Organization that provides personal growth, leadership development, and career preparation opportunities for students in Family and Consumer Sciences education. Promote personal growth and leadership development through Family and Consumer Sciences education. We do a lot of service learning and community service here in Beaverhead County. We raise money and awareness for issues affecting our community such as the Dillon Backpack Program, Toys for Tots, The Giving Tree and making Thanksgiving Food baskets for people in need. We attend a district and state convention each year.

Academic Olympics: Janet Gentry Meets every Thursday at noon for practice. We participate in three to four meets per year. It is a fun group of students who like to test their knowledge of a wide variety of subjects. We use a buzzer system for practice so students must be bold and quick! Students must maintain A's or B's in their classes and usually have participated in Academic Olympics in middle school although that is not necessarily a requirement. Students can have a wide variety of expertise or may be an expert in one or two areas. See Ms. Gentry in room 202 for more information.

FFA: Caleb Igo a group for Ag students that is actually part of your Ag class. Any student who enrolls in at least 1 semester of Ag each year is eligible to participate. There are lots of different opportunities for travel for leadership conferences and contests based on the things that we learn in class. Each year we travel to national FFA convention in Indianapolis for 4-5 days to compete and attend workshops and listen to motivational speeches. Some of the contests that we compete in include: Horse Judging, Livestock Judging, Ag Mechanics, Sales and Service, Public Speaking, Parliamentary Procedure, Agronomy, Range & Land Judging, Job Interview, just to name a few.

Eco Club: Mike Telling goals are to participate in activities to improve/prevent environmental degradation and to also raise awareness in our school community of environmental issues.

Chorus: Carolyn Van Slyke We have Four Choirs at BCHS: Treble Chorus, Men's Chorus, Teen Tones, and Mixed Ensemble.

Choir offers students the opportunity to gain self-confidence, poise, and ability to collaborate with others, and be part of a group that creates beauty through music every day. We have 4 concerts each year plus perform at District Music Festival which offers students and opportunity to grow musically. Those who choose to sing a solo, duet, or ensemble at Festival are offered free lessons that help them improve their vocal technique, gain confidence, and learn to master composer as they perform for others. Choir is an easy to maintain good grade as students participate and work together to learn and perfect music. We sing a variety of musical styles throughout history and modern pieces.

We have an extra-curricular choir, Mixed Ensemble, who have the great privilege of performing the National Anthem for sporting events. It includes singers from Men's Chorus and Teen Tones.

HOSA: The main goal of our club is to promote career opportunities in the health care industry and to enhance the delivery of quality health care to all people. In HOSA, students are involved in leadership and service activities that benefit the school and community. These students also job shadow in hospitals and clinics and experience multiple professionals visit our room who are health care professionals. Students also compete in a few events (more than 50 are offered) at conference where they can focus on future job prospects from events like Nursing to Physical Therapy to EMT to Legal and Ethical Issues in Healthcare.

Honor Society: Jordan Plutt as much a service organization as it is an organization to recognize students for their grades. Students with a 3.5 cumulative GPA turn in a Student Activity Information Form, which is like a resume, in order to be considered for membership. New members are chosen by a faculty committee based on their leadership and service both in the school and in the community. Some of the activities that are sponsored by the BCHS chapter are "The Lodge", holiday donations to the local Food Pantry, donations of toys and clothing to the Giving Tree at Christmas, various activities for Homecoming, Teacher Appreciation week activities, selling program ads for State Championship events held in Dillon, and other projects as the members of Honor Society see a need. Honor Society members also must complete a 12 hour individual service project for every year they are members.

Yearbook: Megan Hansen Students use various graphic design software, such as Photoshop and InDesign, to create the Beavertale yearbook. This is a place where creativity thrives, as students collaborate to put out a book that will wow the school. Motivation and dedication are required.

Key Club: Annie Sullivan a club dedicated to service. Members work hard to better our school and community. They are in charge of several events during the year, such as Winter Formal and Kindness Week. They are a nationally recognized association which partners with Kiwanis and several charity organizations such as March of Dimes and UNICEF. We meet every other Wednesday at noon.

Band: Katie Rafferty Pep band plays for football and basketball game. They provide school spirit, entertainment and great music to cheer on our teams. You must be a member of symphonic or jazz band to participate in pep band. It's the best time!
