PARENT-TEACHER CONFERENCES

For our fall parent-teacher conferences on September 30th, we are planning for remote conferences via Zoom. Elementary families will need to sign up via Signup Genius, like we did last year, and the only difference will be that parents will be meeting with teachers through zoom instead of in person.

Here is the link to sign up for your conference. Please find your child's teacher's name and click on "Sign Up".

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20f054cafa822a0fb6-elementary1>

Your child's teacher will email you the Zoom link prior to the time of your conference.

If you would like speak with any other teacher, please reach out to them via email. They would be happy to either Zoom with you, call you, or have a conversation via email.

Like a lot of other things this year...this is the first time we're trying this, so we'll ask for some grace, flexibility, and understanding.

NEWS FROM THE NURSE:

Many pharmacies and doctor's offices are offering flu vaccines already. We recommend consulting with your physician to determine if and when receiving the flu vaccine is appropriate for you and your family.
