- Spectators will not be allowed to leave the game site and be readmitted under any circumstances.
- School buildings and locker rooms will not be available with the exception of medical emergencies. Staff, officials and opposing teams are expected to show up ready to play.
- Seating in the Bleachers will be available, social distancing measures are encouraged and state guidelines will be followed. It is recommended that spectators bring your own seating.
- Bathrooms will be available.
- There will be limited concessions.

Field Entrances will be as follows:

1. MS/JV/HS Football – spectators park in the parking lot behind the High School and walk to the check-point for attendance. The check-in will be at the Southeast corner of the football field.. Spectators can space out along both sides of the FB field behind the fenced off areas. There is limited bleacher space but you need to maintain the 6 ft spacing. It is recommended that you bring your own seating.

2. MS/Var Girls Soccer – spectators park in the parking lot next to the Elementary school and walk to the small single gated area. Check-in point will be at that area. There is limited bleacher space but you need to maintain the 6 ft spacing. It is recommended that you bring your own seating. The Northern Side behind the team benches will be off limits to spectators

For MS/JV Games: Parents and fans will be asked to sign in at the check in.
