Senior Night is Held Early

Clarksville High School held senior night for the football team, cheerleaders, and band on Friday, September 18.

Senior Night in the fall is usually held on the night of the last football home game. This year it was held early in the season in fear that Corona Virus might prevent the last games from being played.

Senior night is held to honor the senior participants and is a special night for those students and their parents.

Seniors Brighten Up the Parking Lot

By Haley Powers

Participating CHS seniors painted their parking spots on Saturday September 26. This is the second year in which this event has been held. Students who painted their spots had to pay $30 for a spot in the front parking lot or $20 for a spot in the back parking lot.

One hundred per cent of the proceed went to Project Graduation. Clarksville High School Students have been looking forward to seeing parking spots filled up with cool and crazy designs. CHS seniors have been very creative this year and the parking lot looks amazing. Seniors have painted the flag, polka dots, and many other designs for the students of Clarksville to see.

Claire Sosebee said painting the parking spots took longer than expected. Some seniors worked hours at a time on perfecting their designs and took up most of the afternoon painting their spots.

Baylor Murders, who painted a patriotic theme, said he wanted his own spot so that he did not have to search for one each morning.

Isaac Chappell picked the specific images of Chevy and the American flag to paint on his spot because those images represent who he is
