

AFTER SCHOOL PROGRAM EXPECTATIONS

NORTHERN CASS ELEMENTARY

- The Elementary After School Program is for learners in levels K-5.
 - Pre-K may be allowed with administrative approval.
- The program will be offered most Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3:30 p.m. - 5:15 p.m.
 - Families must pick up their learner(s) NO later than 5:30p.m.
 - Late pick ups are not acceptable and will be addressed by Dr. Steiner.
- The cost of the program is $5 per child each day. Families will be given a bill at the end of the month. All bills must be paid in full within one week. Failure to pay may result in your learner not being able to attend.
 - Families have the option to pre-pay for all sessions for $175 per child. This equates to over $100 in savings and is non-refundable.
- Snacks will be provided by the school.
 - If your learner has an allergy, please contact me as soon as possible to discuss snacks they are able to have.
- The administration reserves the right to waive fees for individual families.
 - Families seeking a waiver must contact Dr. Steiner at 701-874-2322.
- The same expectations and consequences from the school day will apply to the After School Program
 - Parents will be notified of the first behavior incident. If the behavior continues, the learner will no longer be allowed to attend.
- Parents/Guardians must email Miss O'Halloran at jamie.ohalloran@northerncassschool.com prior to pick up time if learners will be picked up by another adult.
- Please communicate with your learner's educator & Miss O'Halloran if your child will be absent from the After School Program on a day they signed up for.
- The Elementary After School Program is different from Jag Time for grades 3-5. The AfterSchool Program is a voluntary program, while learners may be required to attend Jag Time to catch up on homework.
