SHOWCASE vol. VII
NORTH PUTNAM JR.-SR. HIGH
Rural Route 2
Roachdale, Indiana 46172

Cougars Crush Bulldogs

Reigning over 1975 Homecoming festivities was Queen Denise Gibson. Members of the court included Junior Diana Hughes, Sophomore Mary Webb and Freshman Lora Summers.

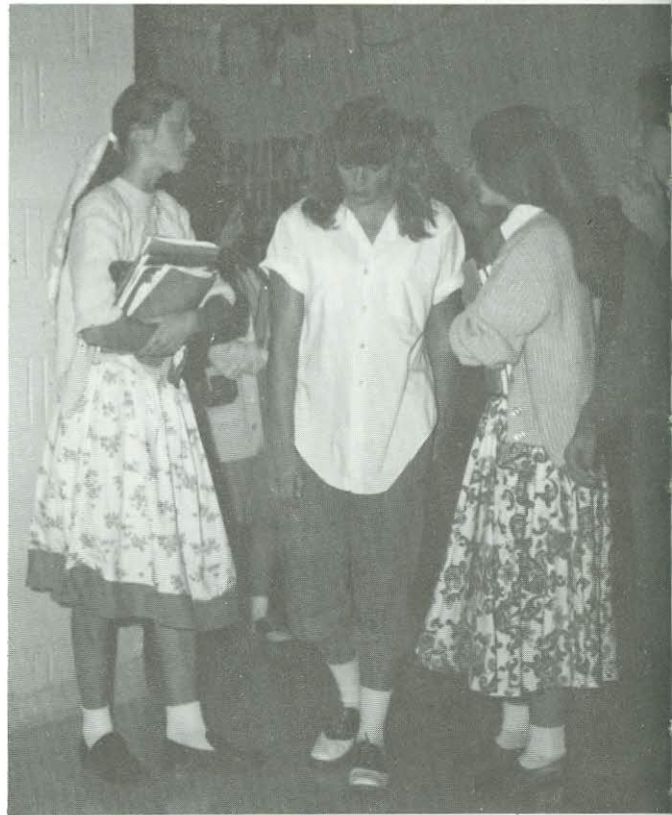

As in the past, each day of Homecoming Week was used to promote spirit in various ways. "Nifty Fifties" Day and the trike race were highlights. Prior to the game, the class floats paraded around the stadium. Winning this contest was the Senior class with the theme, "Impound 'Em."

Showcase Staff:

Without Amanda's photography skills there would have been no yearbook.

Our beloved Editor, Donna Roberts.

The yearbook staff worked very hard to make this a special edition of the Cougar Showcase.

Amanda Richardson and Randy Lanham were the photographers for this edition. Donna Roberts, editor of the yearbook, gave up much time and effort. Mrs. Chase, the sponsor, gave up much of her free time and helped students meet their dead lines. Without her and her aid this book would not be such a success.

The staff for the 1976 Showcase includes:
 Row 1: P. Allen, C. Clodfelter, M. O'Hair, B. Zaring; Row 2: Mrs. Chase, A. Richardson, D. Roberts, B. Burgess, R. Lanham; Row 3: T. Blubaugh Q. Barger, P. Dean, J. McCammack, T. Green, K. Huffines; Row 4: J. Staggs, A. Mianr, D. VanHook, H. Lewis, R. Poole, Mr. Blubaum.

OUR MISS BROOKS

On November 7-8 Thespian Troupe 1478 presented the comedy OUR MISS BROOKS. The cast had plenty of fun portraying teachers, administrators, Board members and students. After eight weeks of rehearsal, all involved felt more empathy for those in positions of authority.

Kim Wagner played the title role of Miss Brooks, an English teacher who dreams of romance and Caribbean cruises.

The object of her romantic dreams is the athletic director, Hugo Longacre, portrayed by Ben Giltz. When principal David Sandusky insists that she direct the school play, her dreams are shattered.

Conflict arises as Miss Brooks and Hugo start to argue over the use of the gym. Other problems come about when Ted, the star basketball player, (Jon South) decides to quit the team to take the lead role in the play. More difficulties occur when the Board president's daughter Rhonda (Monta O'Hair) is refused the female lead in favor of Jane Drew (Paula Wisener). Sparks fly as Rhonda's mother threatens Miss Brook's job.

Although viewers were nearly choked by a storm of soapflake "snow," the play was so true to life that it was enjoyed by cast members and audiences alike.

Performers were: D. Jones, K. Kelly, M. O'Hair, J. Schubert, C. Todd, L. Summers, D. Sandusky, D. Brooks, K. Wagner, T. White, B. Giltz, D. Tippin, P. Wisener, J. South, R. Clodfelter, B. Boller, L. Walton.

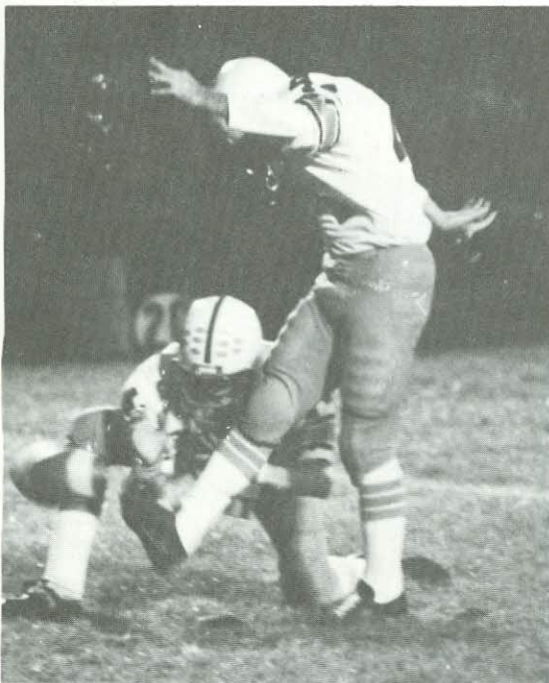

Coaches Martellaro, Price, DeBoer.

A final score of 26-7 highlighted the Homecoming game. Two touchdowns by R. Haulk and one each by J. Brothers and K. Sanders brought a victory to the Cougars.

A tug-of-war and class skits were major attractions at the bonfire Thursday night before the game.

The Seniors won the spirit stick for that week. Winning the bumping contest were D. Brooks and K. Kelly.

A sock hop was held after the game.

Senior Rick Poole wins the trike race.

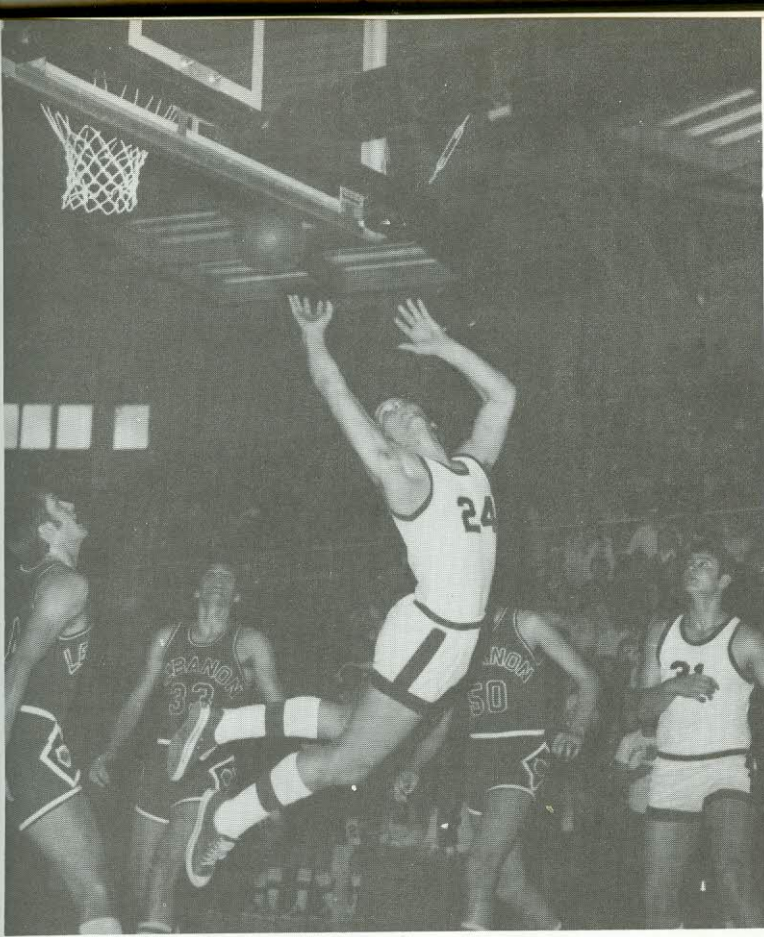

Cougars Cop 4th Sectional Regional Near Miss

After defeating Cascade by 11 points and Tri-West by 9, the Cougars triumphantly took Greencastle 68-62 to capture their second Sectional Title in a row. Named to the All-Sectional team were: Steve McGaughey, Neal Miles, Mike Bullerdick, Jim Brothers, and Ron Brothers.

Still high from the Sectional Championship, the Cougars headed for Lebanon. After three quarters of being 1 or 2 points in the lead, and giving the Tigers a run for their money, we were closely defeated, 56-47.

Spirit was shown in both weeks by having class competition, hall decorations, and pep sessions.

110 In The Shade

110 IN THE SHADE is the story of a small town that comes to life at the hands of a traveling con man. Drought-stricken, Three Point citizens are easily persuaded by Bill Starbuck (Jon South) to finance his plans for making rain. Only spinsterish Lizzie Curry (Lori Hetrick) is skeptical of his promises.

Lizzie's father (Ben Giltz) and her brothers (David Shonkwiler and Jeff Schubert) have arranged a somewhat successful romance with Sheriff File (David Sandusky). File, however, balks at marriage.

When the townspeople discover that Starbuck has bilked them, they also find that Lizzie has taken his part. For it is Starbuck who teaches Lizzie how to appreciate herself. This fresh awareness leads Lizzie to radiate new confidence that finally enmeshes File.

Supported by Paula Wisener in the role of Snookie and by an enthusiastic chorus, 110 romps across the stage. Spritely music accents the production.

Prom Borrows From Orient

Reigning over the Prom were Doug Clodfelter, Jim Brothers, Cody Clark, Neal Miles (King), Denise Gibson (Queen), Monta O'Hair, Samantha Clark, Becky Zaring.

"Mystic Moments In The Orient" was this year's theme for the prom, held on May 1. Couples entered through an Oriental garden with authentic grass and a bridge, while music of the Far East played in the background.

Highlighting the cafeteria were a cascading fountain and a park scene with streamers draped from the ceiling.

Couples danced to the music of the "Mason Brothers," while Neal Miles and Denise Gibson reigned as King and Queen. Samantha Clark, Monta O'Hair, Becky Zaring, Jim Brothers, Cody Clark, and Doug Clodfelter served as the Royal Court.

Seniors

Seniors Remember

Class officers Kelly Sanders, Monta O'Hair, Penny Allen and Cindy Clodfelter shouldered many responsibilities to prepare for Commencement with the aid of class sponsor Linda Patrick (right).

With the news that the man from the cap and gown company was coming to measure Seniors for their Commencement robes, the members of the Class of '76 finally realized that the end of their North Putnam years was at hand.

The memories of illegal squirt guns, spirit stick contests, hush-hush Senior parties and Homecoming began to be treasured.

Many Seniors started to think more seriously of future plans. While some anticipated marriage, others pondered what college to attend.

Soon the frustration of tests and the boredom of daily routine would be behind them.

"This ties me up in knots!"

"Who said that?"

"Hey, the icing goes on the cake, not my hand!"

"You've got to be kidding!"

"Sure, I'm a Senior!"

Graduation: May 23, 1976

Top ranked students in the Class of 1976 are Jan Brown (Benediction), Lori Hetrick (Valedictorian), Robin Ades (Co-Salutatorian), Samantha Clark (Co-Salutatorian), Kelly Sanders (Senior Class President) and Kim Wagner (Invocation).

Dr. Williams addresses the class in his baccalaureate speech, which was based on a quotation from Charles Dickens' A TALE OF TWO CITIES.

CLASS MOTTO: LET US MAKE OURSELVES

WHAT WE WOULD LIKE OTHERS
TO BE

AND LEAVE THE WORLD
BETTER THAN WE FOUND IT

CLASS FLOWER: Red Rose

CLASS COLORS: Red, White and Blue

Bicentennial 1776-1976

Based on the tradition of individual freedom and a spirit of enthusiasm for democratic values, the Constitution of our country provides each of us with the unique right to a free education. Due to the planning of our forefathers we exercise freedoms of participation, inquiry, self-expression and competition.

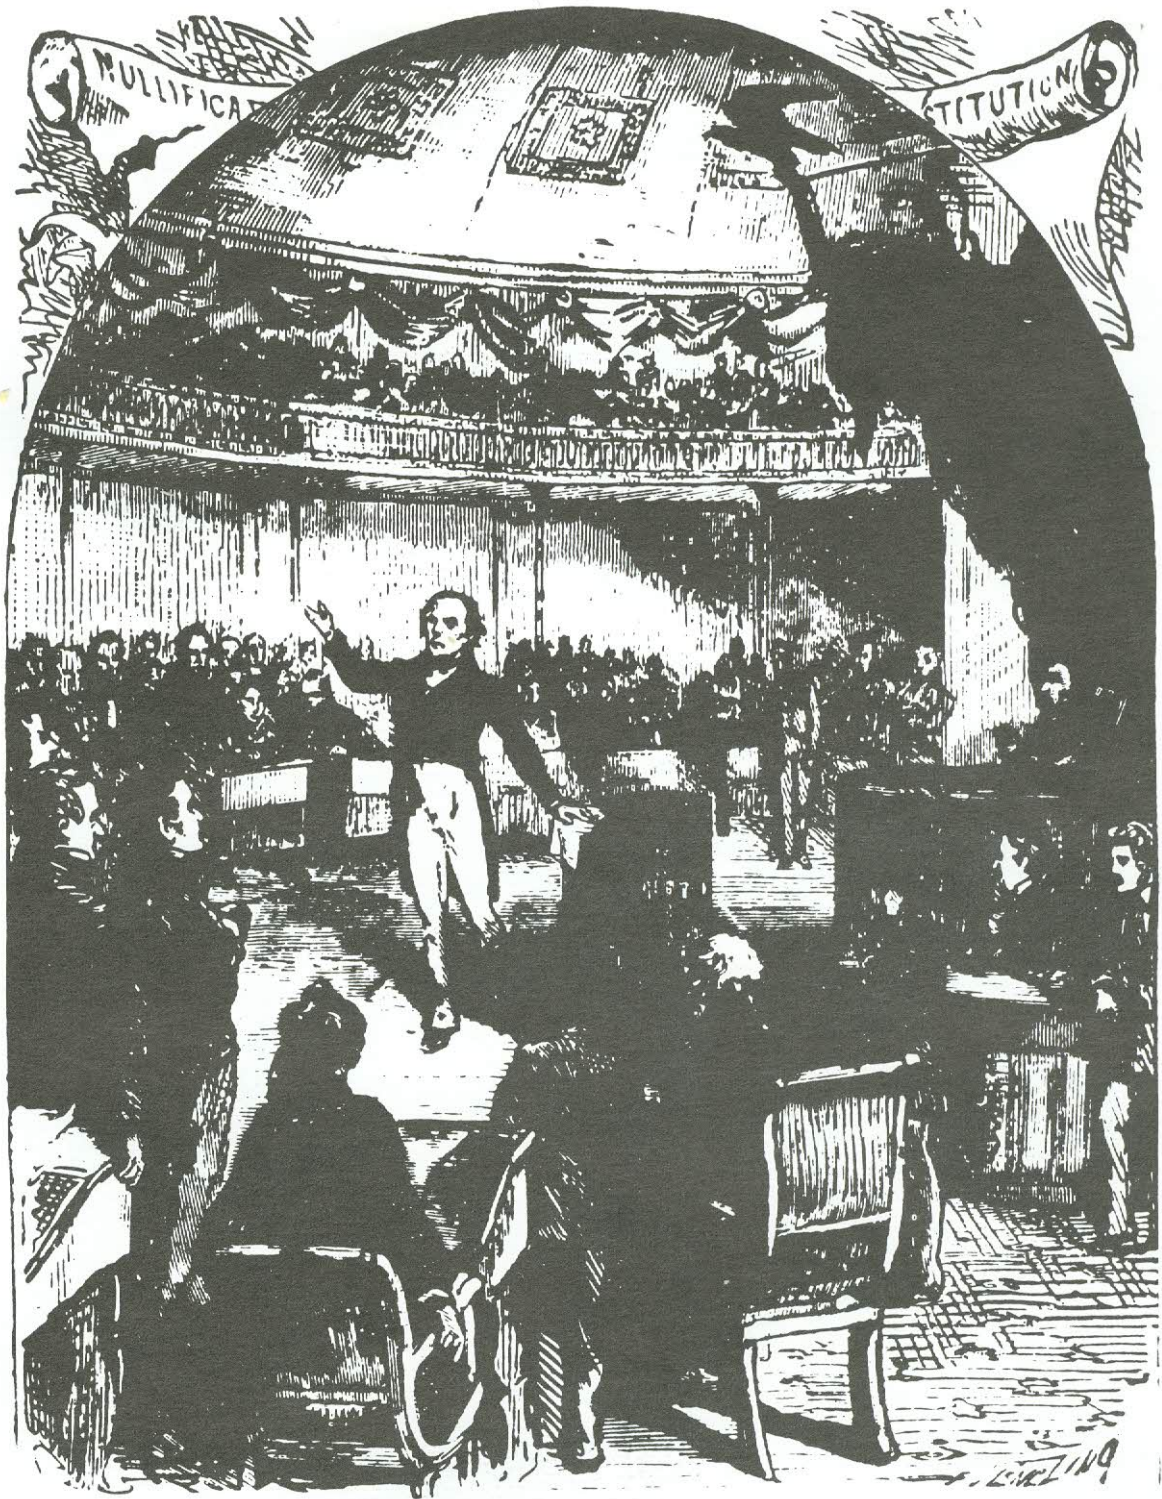

Academic exploration allows intellectual growth. Freedom to teach and learn gives rise to personal growth. Where the spirit of athletic competition thrives, the freedom to participate in inter- and intra-school sports is granted. The rights to select our friends and to strive for excellence are ours.

WHERE THERE IS SPIRIT, THERE IS FREEDOM!

Class Of 1976

Boruff, M. Bullerdick (V. Pres.), J. Brothers, K. Sanders, A. Gillogly, T. Wheeler, M. Blackmore (Pres.).

Band Leaders March On

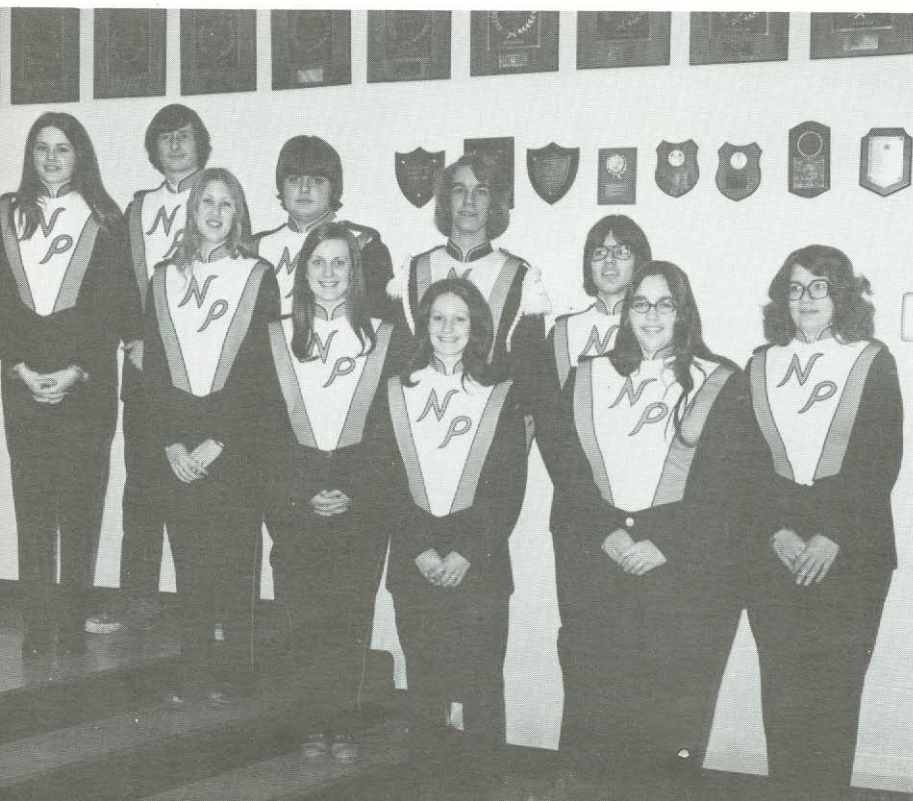

Penny Allen led the Cougarettes in many outstanding performances in her role as Pom-pom Captain. She was selected by the sponsor to act as choreographer for the Cougarettes. Penny spent many hours teaching the girls their routines.

In her first year of performing as feature twirler, Rita Clodfelter won the approval of the crowd. She was spotlighted in many events held throughout the school year.

Drum Major Jonathon South showed skill and leadership throughout the fall marching season. He was chosen as the first junior ever to serve as Major. He led the band in many parades, football games, and contests.

The Band Council acts in an advisory capacity. It approves the trips to be taken and sets up any guidelines, such as conduct rules and dress codes during the trips. This year the Band Council decided that the band should participate in a marching contest held in Indianapolis. They received a 2nd Division Rating in the contest. The council also approved a trip to Six Flags over Mid-America to be taken May 7th and 8th. The council decided that next year's Senior Band members would receive letters with service chevrons instead of trophies.

Harmony Expresses Freedom

Swing Choir Members are: Row 1: V. Pipes, C. Robbins, Mrs. Zenor, G. Williams, B. McFarland, D. Williamson, L. Hetrick, T. Etcheson, K. Kelly; Row 2: D. Sandusky, R. Farrow, D. Shonkwiler, D. Boruff, J. Baker, J. South, P. Baldwin, S. Jones, B. Lawler, M. Davis.

Pep, Pom-Pons Spark Spirit

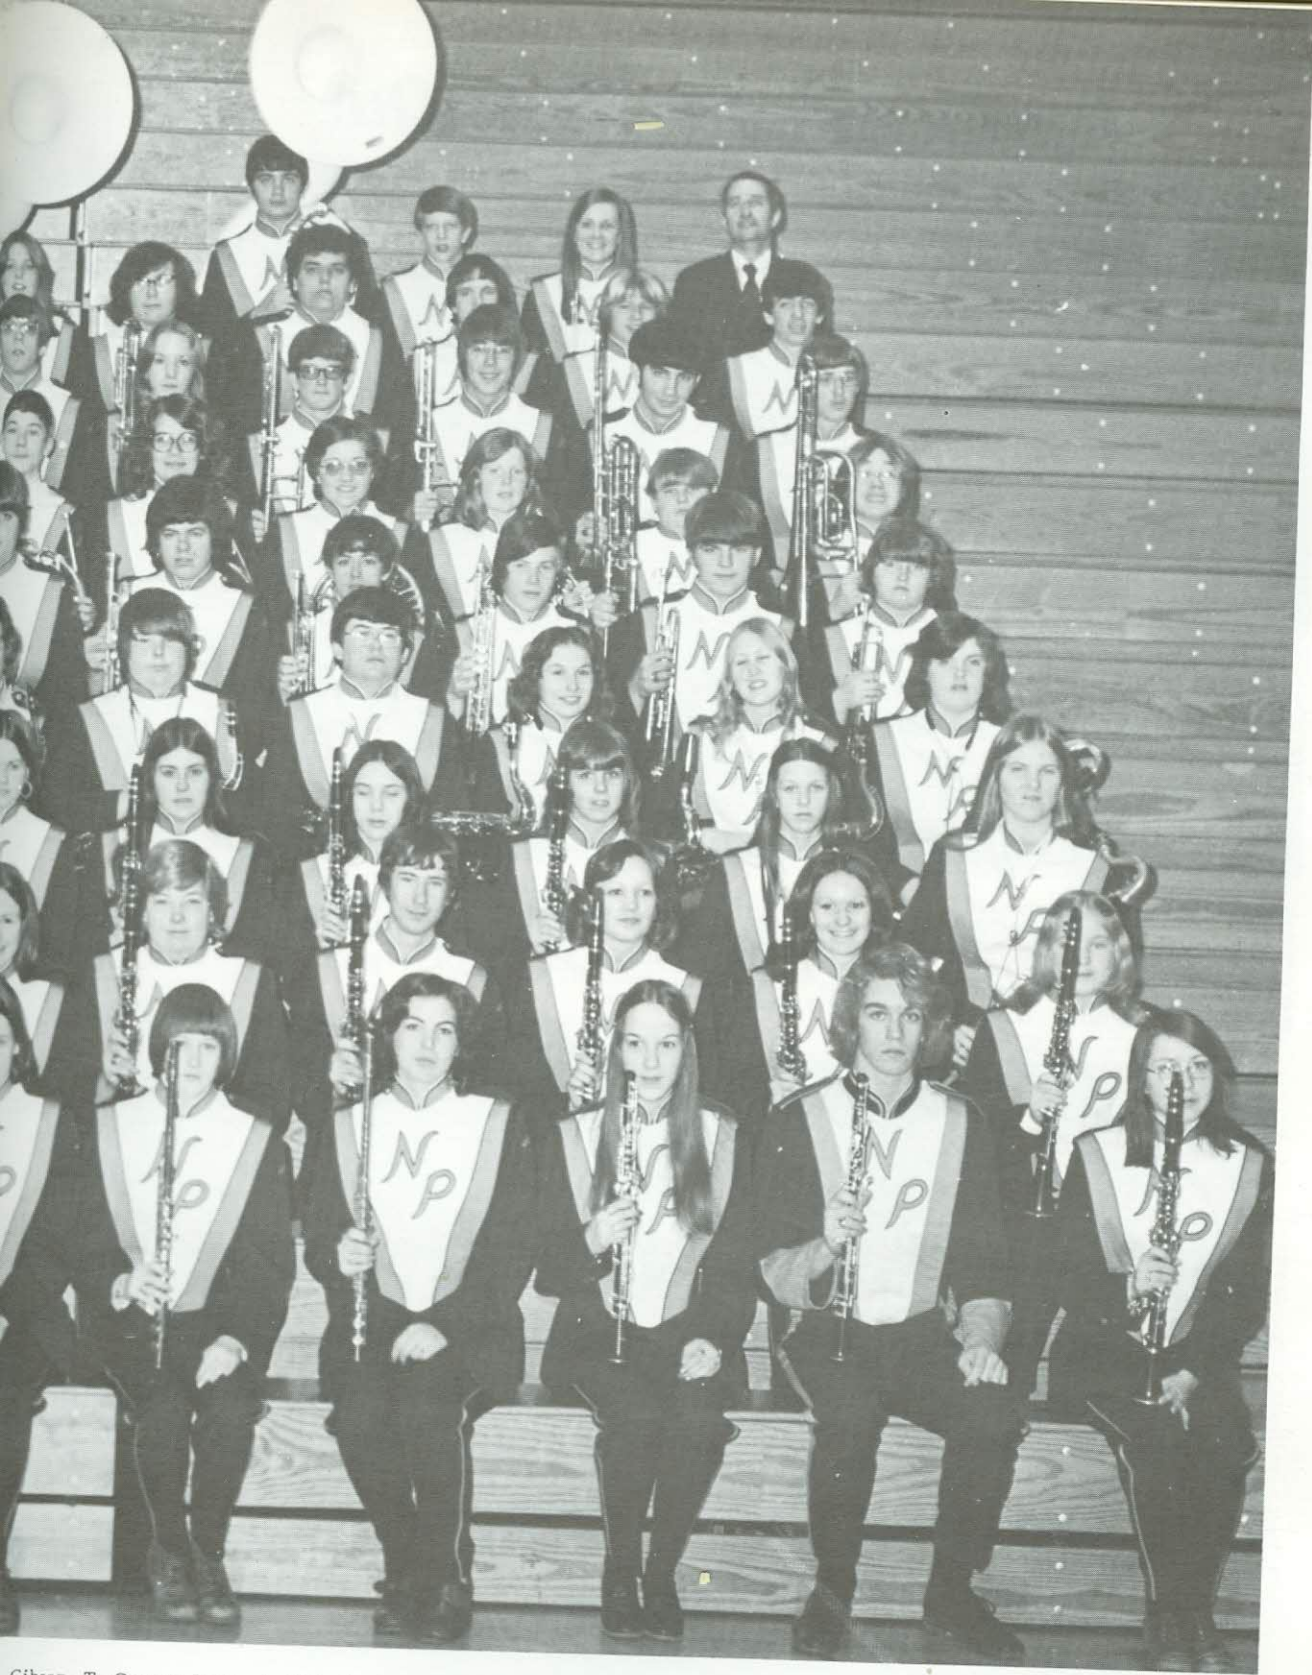

Arousing spirit at pep sessions and basketball games was the Pep Band. The traditional song for the entrance of the varsity basketball players was "Sweet Georgia Brown." Favorites of the crowd were "Horse," and "Rock Around the Clock." At Sectional time the students followed the Pep Band through the halls for special pep sessions. The Pep Band sparked spirit at the victory celebration after North Putnam defeated Greencastle in the Sectional Tourney. Pep Band Personnel are: Row 1: C. Alexander, C. Robbins, B. McFarland, B. Miller, D. Loft, N. Ford; Row 2: A. Gillogly, K. Dickerson, J. Buser, R. Farrow, C. Williams; Row 3: R. McMahon, K. Kendall, J. Moore, B. Burgess, T. Wilson; Row 4: Mr. Wilson, K. Ford, D. Williamson, B. Tippin, D. Sandusky; Row 5: R. Robbins, D. Shonkwiler, S. Jones, D. Boruff; Row 6: B. Bock, N. Tincher, B. Miles, C. Cope, J. McGaughey; Row 7: D. Lane, R. Curran, R. Haulk.

The Pom-Pon Corp was an integral part of the marching band, adding flash and color to performances and parades. It was featured at several basketball games. Members were selected by auditions based on these qualifications: appearance, poise, coordination, marching style, personality projection, and performance of routines. Penny Allen, captain, choreographed all of the Pom-Pon routines. Pom-Pon members are: P. Allen (Capt.), K. Logan, G. Noland, T. Green, P. Wisener, C. Livesay, H. Green, D. Hughes, R. Priest, C. Alexander, L. Sutherlin, J. Miller, N. Knapp, L. Hanlon.

The 1975-76 Marching Cougars performed at many different events during the year. They were featured at home football games, and also performed at the Greencastle 4-H Parade in August and in a marching contest held in Indianapolis. Members were, Row 1: P. Wisener, B. Lawler, T. Davies, D. Roberts, B. Boller, S. Leeke, J. Alcorn, R. Holland, K. Logan, B. Hennon, J. South, C. Copner; Row 2: C. Alexander, J. Baker, B. McFarland, B. Miller, G. Noland, L. McGaughey, C. Vocational Groups Prepare OEA is a professional youth club which can help people decide upon their career objective. Eight girls went to state OEA in Indianapolis. Lisa Creviston and Debbie VanHook were in the contest, with Lisa in Bookkeeping 1 and Debbie in Shorthand 2. All attended meetings to elect the new state officers. Row 1: D. Loft (Pres.), M. O'Hair (Vice P.), D. Gibson, C. Livesay, B. Miller, C. Clodfelter (Sec.), P. Wisener; Row 2: L. Clodfelter, P. Lee, D. Brooks, V. Wely (Treas.), J. McCammack, N. Tincher, J. Marcum, L. Creviston, P. Shannon, J. Cox, K. Fellin, R. Priest (Rep., His.).

This year the Industrial Arts Club played a part in the construction of a much-needed concessions stand. Also included in the activities of the Industrial Arts Club is open shop. The members are allowed to work on projects after school to meet deadlines. Members of the club are: Row 1: B. Sheets, R. Haulk, K. Ford, D. O'Hair, B. Miles, S. Meanor; Standing: T. Simpson, B. Bock, H. Wood, E. Burnett, L. Wilson, J. Holder, J. Rodgers, K. Brewer, R. Douglas, S. Jones, C. Cope, T. Miles, B. Bills, M. Wood, D. Lane, Mr. Steward (Sponsor).

Math, Chess Exercise Logic

Meeting in the evenings, Chess Club members expand their abilities to concentrate and think ahead. This year the Chess Club held a tournament. Winner of the tourney was Jeff Schubert, and Bob Bock was runner-up. There were twenty-six people all together in the tournament. The membership includes: J. Schubert, M. Davis, D. Tippin, B. Sheets, D. Wallace, B. Miles, K. Ford, S. Jones, N. Miles, R. Curran, B. Bock.

G.A.A. Augments Activities

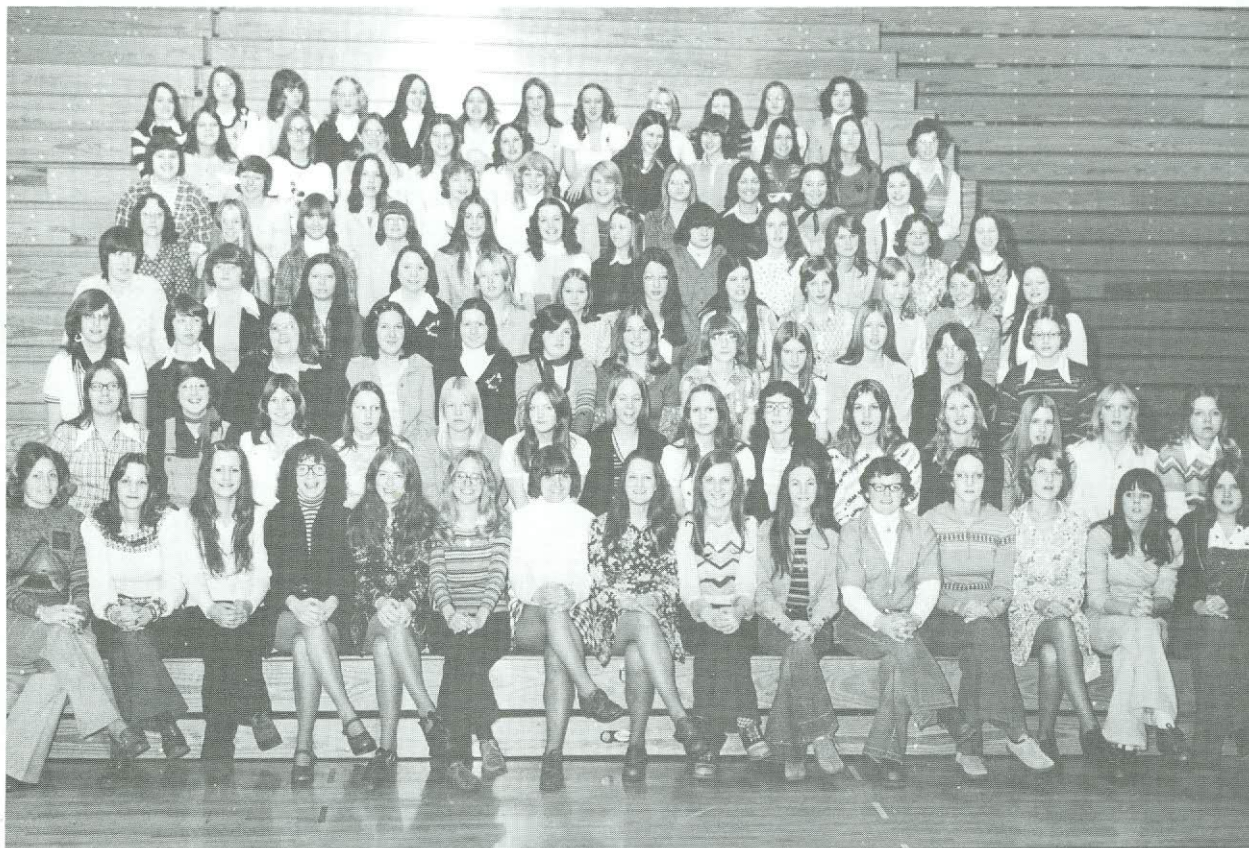

This year G.A.A. participated in many different sport activities. To improve their leadership skills, the G.A.A. officers attended Leadership Camp in October at Epworth Forest in North Webster, Indiana.

The sports in which the girls participated included football and intramural competition in basketball and volleyball. Tuesday night bowling and a swim meet stressing competition between classes rounded out the program.

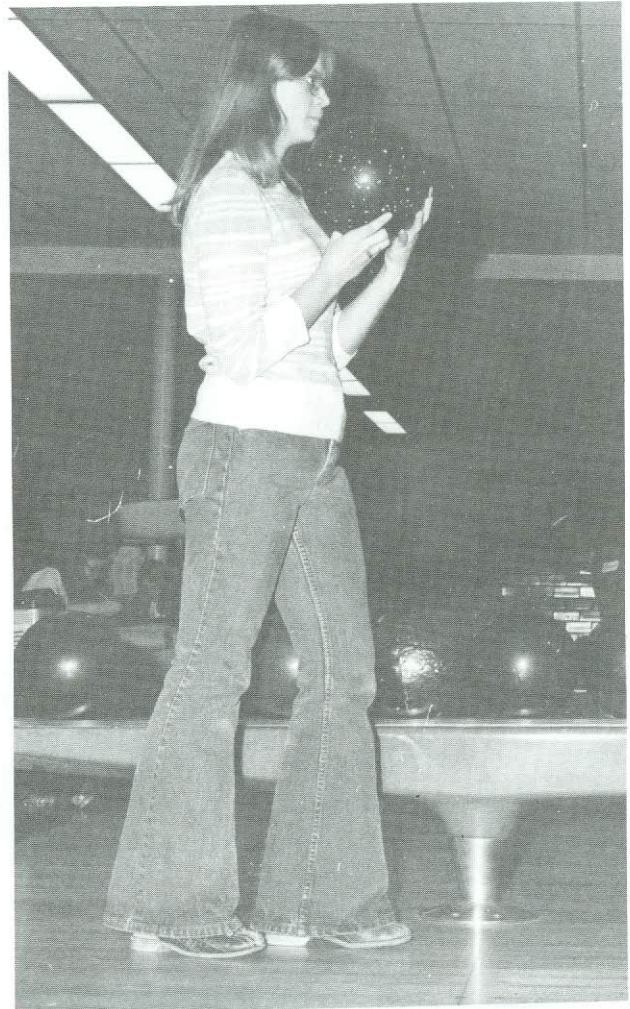

There were many special activities in which the members participated.

They went on a skiing trip to Mount Wauasee in New Pavo, Indiana and also went on a canoe trip, camping out overnight. The year ended with four Senior girls receiving State Plaques, awarded for excellence in competition and skills. They were Samantha Clark, Tammy Green, Loretta McGaughey and Donna Roberts.

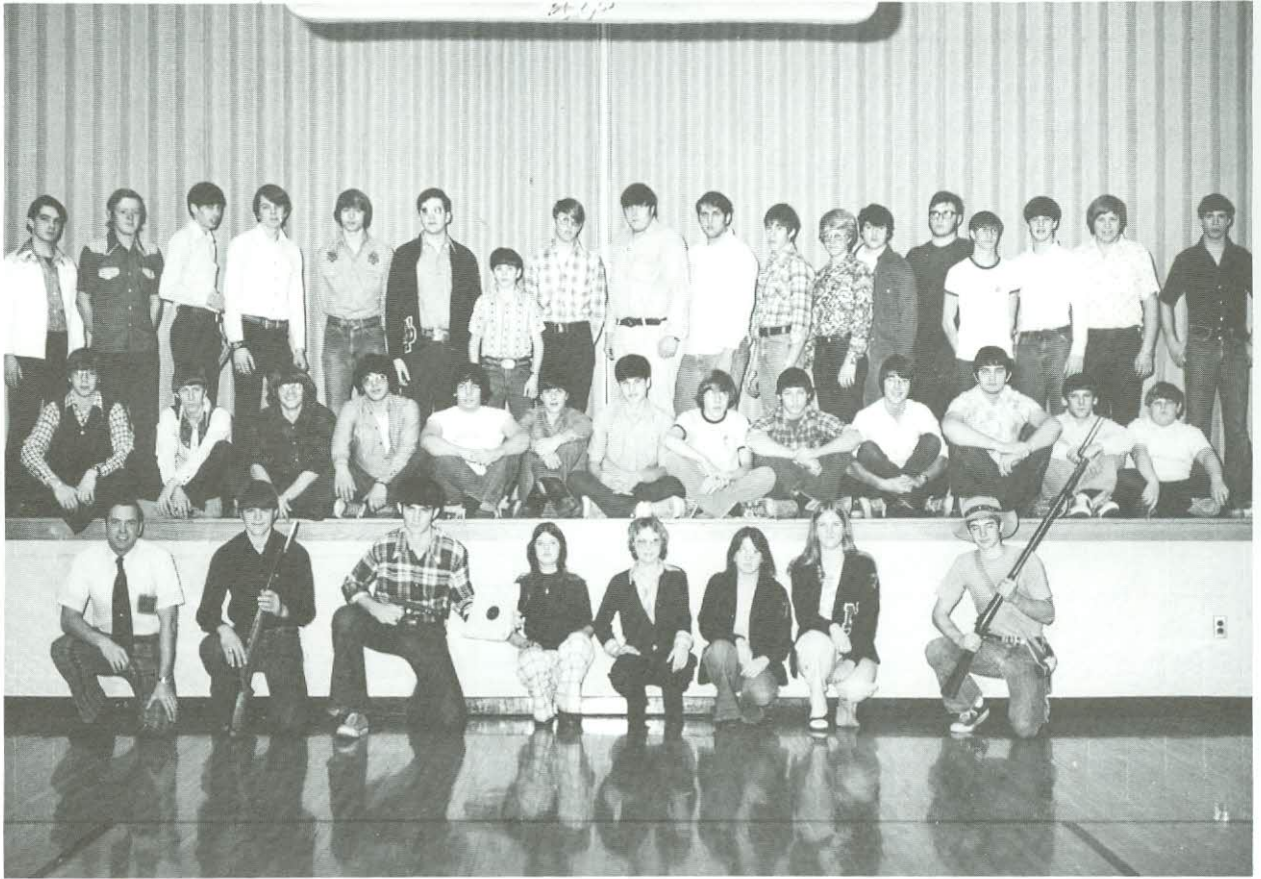

Some of the girls also received a trophy at the Annual Winter Sports Award Banquet. The girls were Loretta McGaughey for Most Valuable Player and Samantha Clark for Mental Attitude Award.

Competition

Cougar Gridders Break Even

The Varsity Football record was 5-5. The final standings found the Cougars second in the County and third in the WCC. This accomplishment is great considering that 22 seniors were lost from 1974's 8-2 team. Thus, the team was inexperienced but nevertheless made a good showing. During the season 10 lettermen missed game time due to injuries.

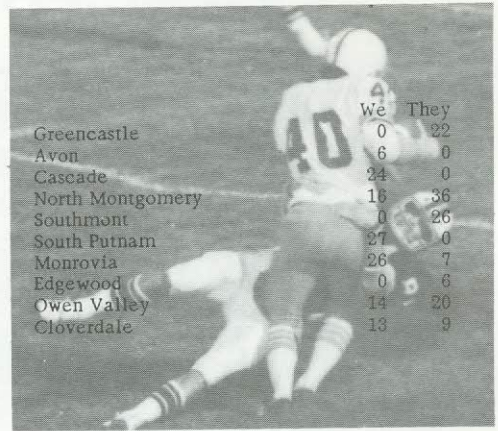

Seven Cougar players were elected to the WCC team. Those gridgers with WCC election and school records included Mike Bullerdick with a passing record of 1343 yards. Ron Brothers received the most passes while Jim Brothers caught the most passes for touchdowns. Raymond Haulk was just short of 1000 yards gained, and Bud Page scored 225 defensive points and was also selected MVP. Also on the WCC team were David Tippin and Kelly Sanders. Trey Etcheson received Honorable Mention on the WCC team.

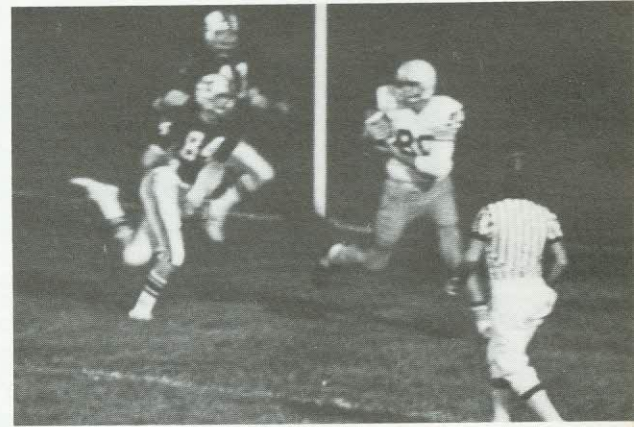

Ron Brothers' powerful kickoffs opened the way to many Cougar victories.

Cougars Reign Over WCC And Sectional

North Putnam's most valuable player Jim Brothers goes up for two points.

The lockers were bare, uniforms put away and the only evidence of North Putnam basketball was memories. The best of these memories were the WCC and Sectional crowns, and the record equal to last year's 20 wins and 4 losses.

The team had a slow start losing two of their first three games, including the County Tourney. But the Cougars came back to win seven in a row before losing to Covington. The cagers did not lose again until the Regional.

The Cougars swept the Conference with a perfect 7-0 record. It marked the first year to win the WCC outright. Senior standouts Brothers, Bullerdick, and Miles were voted to the All-Conference team. Jim was also selected as most valuable player in the county.

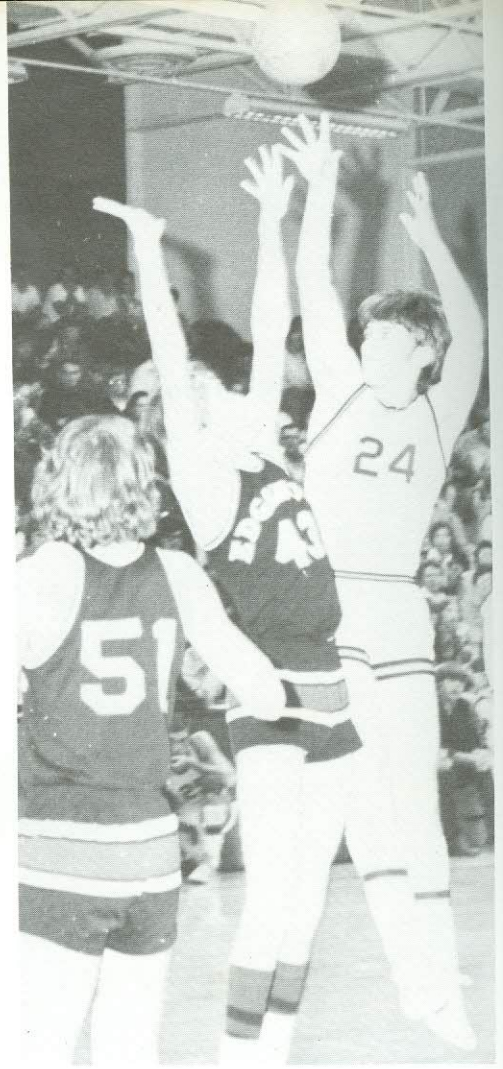

The fans will remember the Sectional as one of the most exciting and closest in many years. The Cougars beat Cascade 72-61 before handling Tri-West 67-58. In the final game North Putnam and Greencastle battled for a Cougar win 68-62. The Cougars advanced to the Frankfort Regional where they came upon Lebanon. The game went back and forth until the Tigers pulled ahead in the final minutes to win 47-56.

Kneeling: S. Jones, T. Heckel, M. McFarland, (mgrs.); Standing: Mr. Price, E. O'Hair, J. Miller, C. Clark, J. Stultz, J. Brothers, R. Brothers, S. McGaughey, N. Miles, M. Bullerdick, R. Daniels, Mr. Sharp

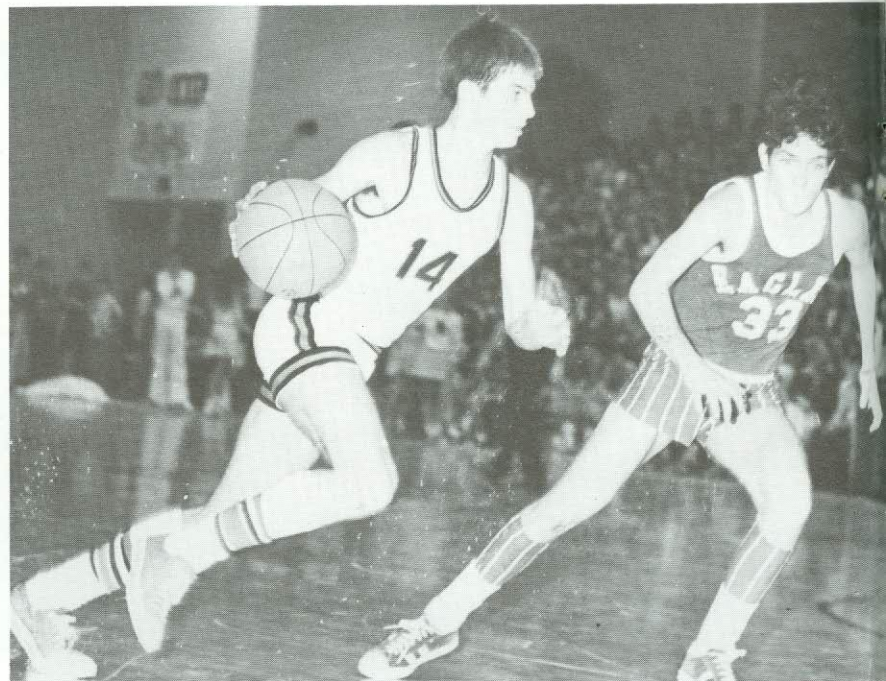

The solemn faces of Cody, Rick, and Jim reflect serious pre-game thoughts.

Steve McGaughey's reliable shooting scored valuable points for the Cougars.

Varsity cheerleaders are (top to bottom) Robin McBride, Vicki Pipes, Denise Gibson, and Penny Allen.

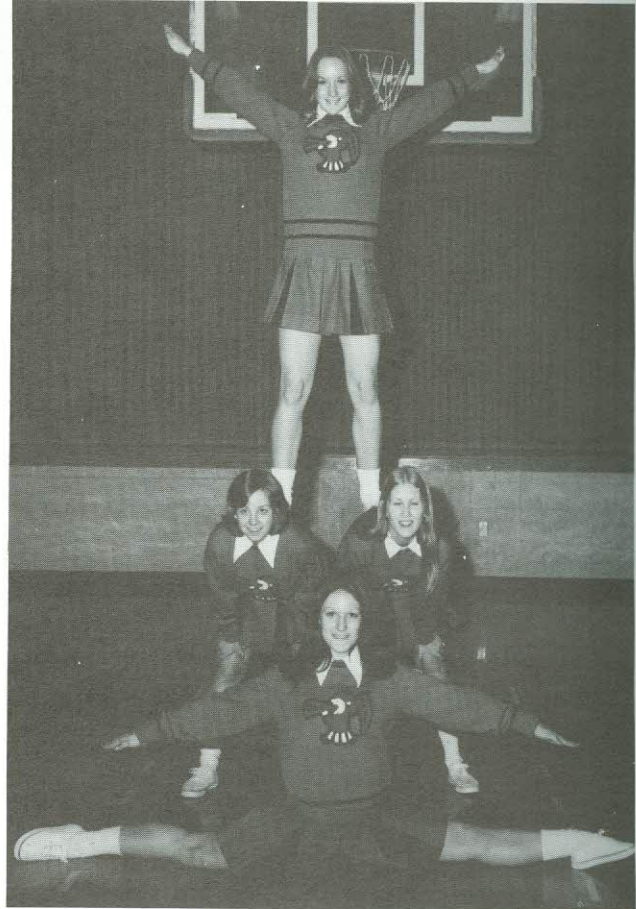

The girls had a very grueling year. After the regular season of yelling, they doubled their efforts to cheer the Cougars on to the Sectional and Regional.

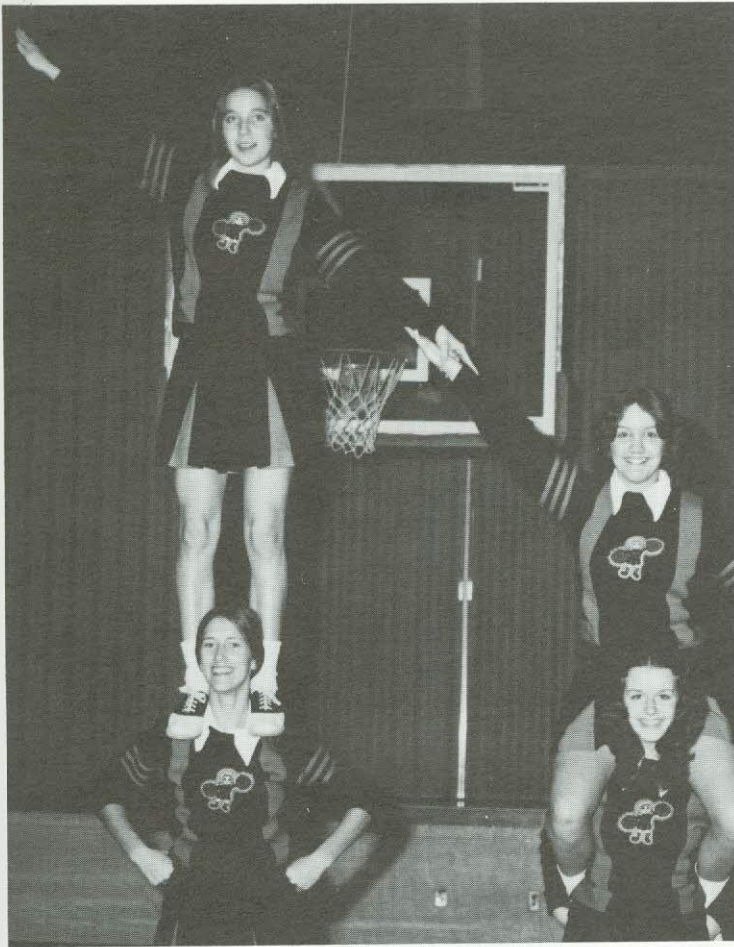

Many hours were spent in preparing posters, decorating halls, learning new routines and mounts, and teaching the Pep Block new cheers and motions to go with the mittens. A lot of time went into preparing for pep sessions and a special rally when the team went to Lebanon.

The Varsity cheerleaders work closely with the B-Team cheerleaders. Both squads combined their efforts to make the yells a little more spectacular for the Cougar Boosters and fans to watch. They always managed to come up with something different and more daring every time.

Win or lose, the Cougar cheerleaders can be counted on to say we are P-R-O-U-D to be a Cougar.

On a downbeat from Mr. Wilson and the Pep Band, the girls led the fans in singing, "Hail, North Putnam, hats off to thee."

The B-Team cheerleaders with the help of Charlie Cougar aroused the spirit to back their team. The B-Team cheerleaders are: Roxanne McBride, Heidi Green, Lanna Tippin and Becky Zimmerman. Charlie Cougar was Teresa White. She attended the pep sessions dressed as Charlie Cougar and helped both the Varsity and B-Team cheerleaders.

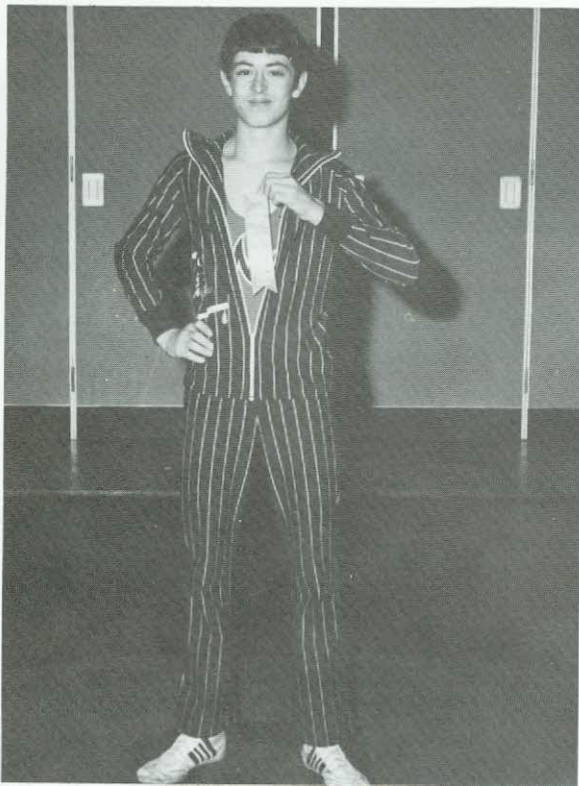

Creating spirit for their team were the Freshman cheerleaders. They are (L. to R.): Deedy Short, Lisa Sutherlin, Tammy Gatlin, and Rita Clodfelter.

Grapplers Grip Awards

These grapplers wrestled for North Putnam. Row 1: K. Sanders, J. Holder, B. Cloncs, K. Huffines, J. Moore. Row 2: J. Roberts, D. Tippin, B. Sheets, B. Page, M. Fordice, R. Haulk, Mr. Martellaro.

Haulk, awarded MVP, was first in the Sectional.

The North Putnam Wrestling team achieved a record of 4 wins and 8 losses in the 1975-76 year. The grapplers did very well in individual wins. Leading the team in victories were Kelly Sanders (19-4), Raymond Haulk (17-4), Jim Moore (14-6), and Steve Majors (11-7).

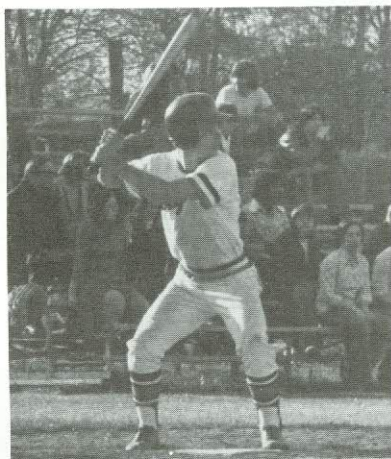

North Putnam had three wrestlers win the County Tourney, one Sectional winner, a wrestler accepted for All-Conference, and four advanced to the Regional. (Kelly Sanders captured 3rd place in the Regionals).

Coach Martellaro felt that all the wrestlers put forth one hundred per cent for the team, although there were some disappointments due to injuries and forfeits in dual meets.

Raymond Haulk received the 1975-76 Most Valuable Wrestler Award.

Coaches Conquer Competition

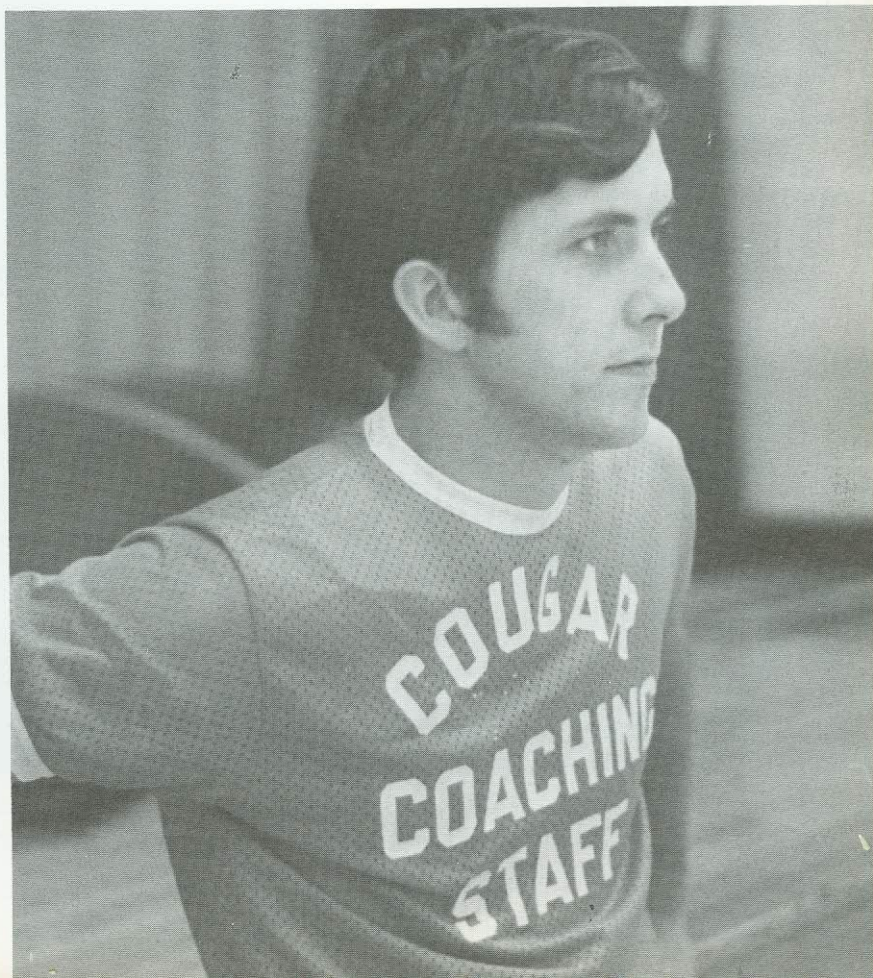

Miss Hoey agrees that being a coach is rewarding.

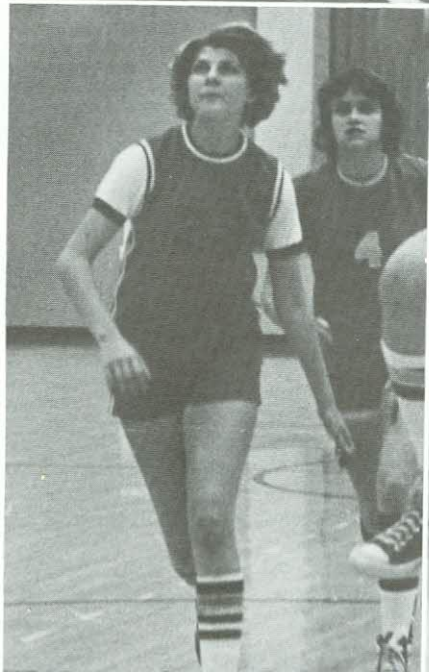

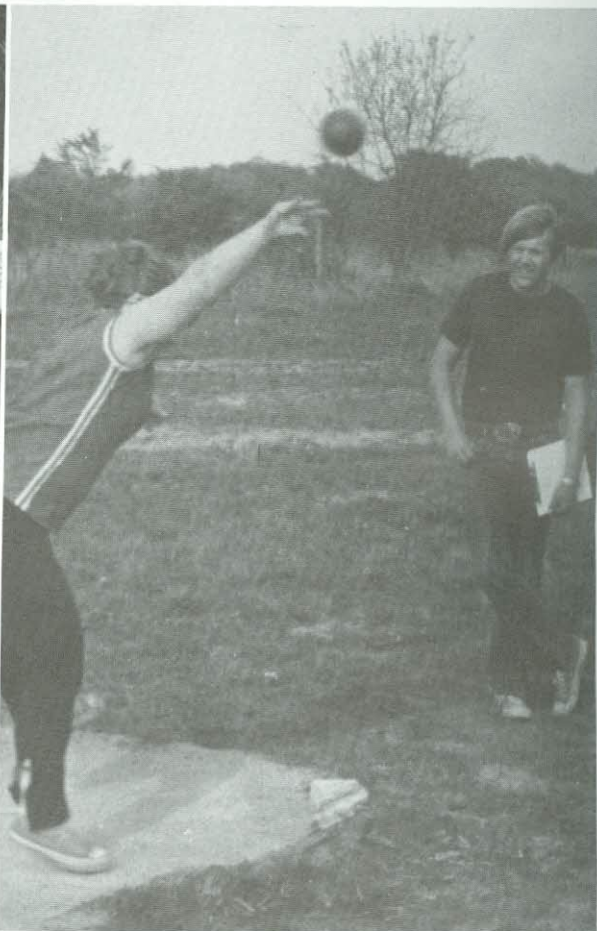

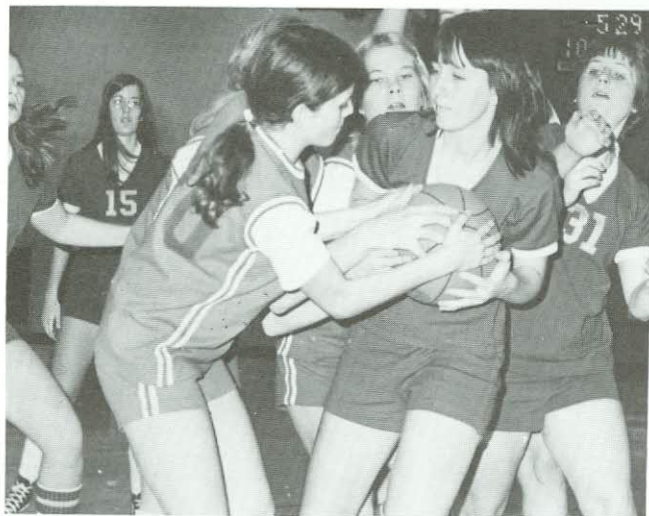

Coach Sharp has his turn at the Sectionals in Greencastle.

Miss Hippensteel's aim was a successful season and she and her teams worked hard to achieve it.

Girls Arouse Interest

Cougar Girls Bump Up

Senior Tammy Green watches with hope as teammate Teresa Lanham successfully bumps the ball over the net.

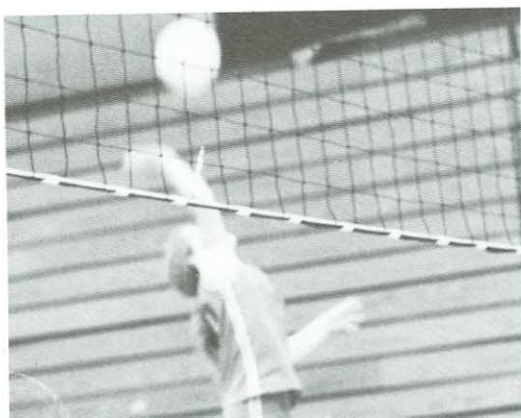

The Girl's Volleyball teams were not too successful this season in the win and loss category. The Varsity's record was 2-10 and the J-V's record was 2-9. However the girls improved in their skills and knowledge of the game.

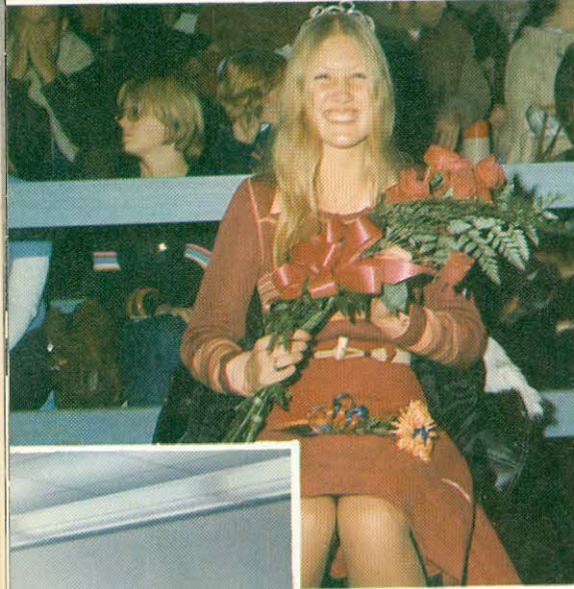

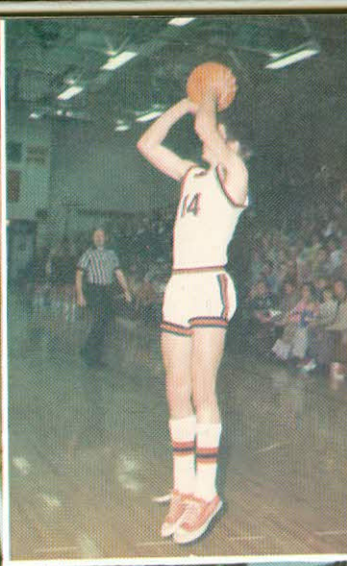

During the Fall Sports Banquet, Loretta McGaughey received the Most Valuable Player Award.

Varsity members include (kneeling): T. Green, M. Huffman, S. Headley, and B. Clodfelter; standing: L. McGaughey, S. O'Hair, T. Lanham, C. Kemp, D. Roberts, S. Clark and Coach Lynn Hippinsteel.

B-Team members, Row 1: B. Zaring, V. Harpold, K. Green, A. Walters, D. Horton, A. Reasor; Row 2: D. Crodian, D. Nelson, L. McGaughey, S. Steele, and T. McClain. Also, P. Kelly, B. Tippin, and Coach Lynn Hippinsteel.

Girls Seek First Sectional

Pictured is the girls' Varsity Basketball team, in and out of uniform. Basketball players CAN look like young women! These girls did not have a tremendous record, but they played to the best of their ability and skill. The team is losing four senior girls who Lynn Hippinsteel has coached since her first year at N.P. They are Sam Clark, Tammy Green, Loretta McGaughey, and Donna Roberts. During the Winter Sports Banquet Loretta McGaughey received the Most Valuable Player Award and a new award was presented to Samantha Clark for her high mental attitude.

Varsity members are Row 1: S. Clark, T. Green, L. McGaughey, J. Buser, T. Green, M. Huffman; Row 2: Miss Hippinsteel, D. Roberts, D. Horton, C. Kemp, T. Lanham, E. Hedrick, and S. O'Hair.

Coached by Bev Miller, B-team players are: R. McGaughey (Mgr.), L. McGaughey, K. Kelly, J. Fordice, K. Young, K. Greene, J. Thornburg, T. McClain, L. Staggs, L. Gordon, J. Storm, C. Copner, and K. Roberts (Mgr.).

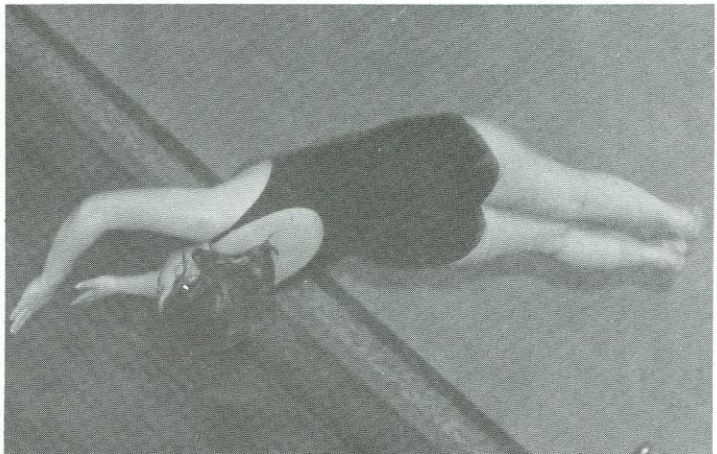

Swimmers Take The Plunge

The North Putnam Girls' Swim Team was equipped with three outstanding seniors who displayed leadership and hard work. These girls were Dana Brooks, Kim Kelly, and Roxanna Priest. Another girl (although only a junior) was awarded M.V.P., Pam Baldwin. In events such as the butterfly, breaststroke, backstroke, and crawl, these girls swam to the best of their ability.

The girls were under the leadership of Miss Hoey, who has been swim coach for two years.

Tracksters Spring Forward

Under the direction of Miss Hoey, Donna Horton and Nancy Ford qualified for the Sectional. Donna competed in the long jump and the 100 yard dash and Nancy in the mile. Although the team was small, each girl improved her skills. Events included the long and high jumps, shotput, and softball throw.

Donna Horton takes a flying leap as she does the long jump which qualified her for the Sectional.

Girls Sprinters were Row 1: S. Clark, K. Kelly, L. McGaughey, M. O'Hair; Row 2: T. Greene, R. McBride, K. Greene, S. O'Hair, T. Lanham, L. Staggs; Row 3: D. McCloud (Mgr.), N. Knapp (Mgr.), Miss Hoey, D. Horton, A. Walters, S. Purvis, N. Ford, M. Webb, M. Huffman, P. Cloncs (Mgr.).
