Under the direction of Mrs. Brandt thirty-two seventh and eighth graders made up the Junior High Chorus. They learn basic vocal techniques, and are trained to sing in parts.

The Variety Show and Spring Concerts were highlight for the choir when choreography was added to the sound. With the Christmas concert came popular and traditional songs.

Patriotic, popular, traditional, and Broadway tunes were sung by the Junior High Chorus.

Many students anticipate joining the concert choir after eighth grade year ends.

Cheerleaders Add Spark To Games

Cheering the 7th grade team on to victory are from top to bottom: Lisa Hartman, Deanna Williams, Andrea VanBibber, and Kathy Bryan.

8th grade cheerleaders: Lyn Brown, Suzie Switzer, Rachel Inman, and Bev Bias.

Being a Junior High Cheerleader is a very important role in school. Making posters and decorations, baking goodies for the team, and thinking of new ways to build spirit are just a few of the responsibilities these girls have. Being a cheerleader is a lot of fun, but it is hard work too-even in J.R.-High!

'Depreciation' Wins Spelling Bee For Brian Hartman

Participants in the spelling bee included (L to R) B. Zeffel, L. Hartman, K. Bryan, G. Bryan, G. Ensor, M. Zeffel, T. Harpel, T. McFarland, S. Siner, B. Hartman, and J. Grider.

Eighth grader Brian Hartman won this year's spelling bee award. After a long battle of words, Hartman prevailed over seventh grader Kathy Bryan by spelling the word depreciation correctly. Kathy was named alternate, and Brian became North Putnam's Spelling Bee winner.

This year's Junior-High Historical Club members elected (L to R) D. Clifford—(V.-Pres.), S. Switzer—(Sec.-Treas.), and B. Hartman—(Pres.). Although the club had many things planned, bad weather prevented the activities. Mr. Cook aided the members in the learning of the history which surrounded them.

"Roses in December"

Go and seek in memory's lane
 For roses in December.
 There you'll find each lovely thing
 Only you remember.

Through a fog bank shimmer
 Once you saw a sun-red sail.
 One dark night you saw the moon
 Astride two tall pines glimmer.

Once at dead of night a bird
 Wakened you with singing.
 From a ground fog once you saw
 Tips of young trees springing.

On a chimney pot a gull,
 Like a bird of warning,
 You saw standing quite alone
 One translucent morning.

Would you cull in memory's lane
 Roses in December,
 Strew the seeds of lovely things
 Only you remember.

102 Seniors Receive Diplomas in 10th N.P. - Ceremony

The 1978-79 graduating class of North Putnam held its Commencement and Baccalaureate Exercises on May 20th. Tim Tiffany, Minister of the Bainbridge Christian Church, was chosen by the class to give the Baccalaureate Address. Salutatorian, Jeff Harbison, spoke of the graduates' futures, and Valedictorian, Rita Clodfelter, reminisced on the past experiences treasured by the class. The High School Concert Band provided the special music, "Tomorrow."

Midnight Magic Theme And Mood Of Prom Night

May 5 was appointed Prom Night 1979. This year's theme was "Midnight Magic." Kathy Greene reigned as Queen and Laren Livesay as King. Lori Gordon, Lisa Sutherlin, Rodney Greene, and Grett Stoker made up the court. Scott Wheeler, DJ from WNDE, kept the music flowing all night long. The post prom was held at the Crawfordsville Skating Corral. The Junior's fathers provided breakfast in the Home Ec. department. The entire evening was "Midnight Magic!"

Exciting Performace Given By "Oklahoma" Cast!

"You brung me to the party,
ask me for a dance."

"I'm just a girl who cain't, say no!"

Thespians Troupe 1478 presented the musical "Oklahoma", under the directorship of Mr. Gjesevold, with the help of Mr. Steward and Mrs. Gjesevold. The plot of the musical is a love story between Curly, and Laurie, and Ado Annie and Will.

Cast members are: Mark Kays—(Curly), Lenay McGaughey—(Aunt Eller), Lora Summers—(Laurie), Troy Bryan—(Jud Fry), Tim Lawless—(Ali Hakim), Beth Hennon—(Ado Annie), Jerry Tincher—(Will), Brad Malayer—(Andrew Carnes), Dave Weaver—(Ike Skidmore), Lisa Sutherlin—(Gertie Cummings), Gary Fitzsimmons—(Cord Elam), and Todd Crosby—(Slim). Special thanks should be given to the chorus for a job well done.

Will shows off his new dance to the boys.

Putting on Make-up is such a bore; ask any cast member.

Bathing Bandmen

Palm Sunday was not forgotten on the band trip. A short service was held.

This year the North Putnam High School Band's annual trip was an exciting trip to Florida.

The band left on April 6, and returned April 13. While in Florida, the band visited Walt Disney World, where they performed in "Dumbo's Parade." The band also enjoyed a day at Clearwater beach, and a day at Silver Springs and Wild Waters. In order to make this trip, the band took part in several fund-raising projects. They sold calendars, fruit cakes, a blanket, and a TV. They also held a car wash and bake sale last fall on a Saturday. This involved many of the kids and band parents as did the chicken-pulling project at Proctor's chicken farm. On a Sunday in January, band members loaded 13,600 chickens on 2 semis. Two other days, they unloaded 15,000.

These projects involved many band members working together to achieve their goal—FLORIDA!

Lora Summers—Drum Majorette

Kendra Logan—Featured Twirler

Gail Noland—Pom-Pon Captain

Lora Summers led the band on the field and in parades many times in her two years serving as drum majorette. Kendra Logan and Rita Clodfelter added an air of excitement with their baton routines during football season. Kendra also lit up the Variety Show with her lighted baton routine. Gail Noland led the high-stepping pom-pom girls through many successful shows. During Gail's two-year service as Captain, she has given the pom-pom girls many new routines.

These many talented young ladies wore the orange and blue colors with pride. They added variety and highlights to the band shows.

The Pep Band has a lot of pep and enthusiasm to this year's games with the high-spirited members of the group including A. App, D. Crosby, R. Copner, G. Row 2—J. Bridges, T. Harbison, M. Harpold; R. Schubert, T. M. Bock, R. Knoll; R. Stockton, J. Jones, B. Farrow, D. Row 5—Y. Wilson, J. Lucas, S. Walton; R. Lawless, R. Miles, G. Steward.

Stage And Pep Bands Capture The Sounds Of Today's Music

Rainbow Ensemble; Row 1: S. Wilson, T. Hetrick, D. Hutcheson, A. Ulrey; Row 2: L. McFarland, D. Chandler, K. McFarland, C. Southern.

In the last few years the choral department has grown to bigger and better things. This year at district contest at Greencastle, students brought home: Seven-1st place finishes; three-2nd places; and one-3rd place in solo. Out of the five ensemble groups that went, four received 1st place finishes, as well as one-2nd.

Two new singing ensembles were formed this year; Rainbows, and New Horizons. These groups have done several performances for many social groups.

In addition to these ensembles, the Concert Choir has done many concerts including Fall, Christmas, and Spring concerts. The group also sang at the Central National Bank in Greencastle, and at the Variety Show.

The Concert Choir has three officers: Myrna Clodfelter (pres.), Dena Hutcheson (sec.), and Sherri Keyt (mus. Lib.).

The Council's Pizza Contest proved that pizza can be as much fun to make as it is to eat.

The Student Council has spent a busy year sponsoring many projects.

The projects range from a faculty breakfast, helping at the polls on election day to selling candy at football games, carnations on Valentine's Day and baking cookies for the elderly at Christmas.

The Council also sponsored such activities as sock hops, Student Exchange Day, movie night and the posting of monthly calendars.

It was certainly a prosperous year.

John Daniel Tate entertained N.P. students at a highly successful convo.

The regis is crowned.

The Junior Classical League was active selling concessions at sports events to finance their annual Christmas party and Roman Banquet. At the Christmas party the slaves received an informal initiation and at the Roman Banquet they were formally initiated. Highlighting the banquet were Mark Kays playing his banjo, and Tricia Hetrick singing the "Lord's Prayer" in Latin.

Adiós North Put, Hóla Mexico

A Spanish "fiesta," eating at El Matador in Indianapolis and taking a trip to old Mexico was on the North Putnam's Spanish Club's agenda.

There were eight students that visited Mexico. While in Mexico, they visited Mexico City, Cuernavaca, Taxco, and Acapulco. They saw the Ancient Aztec Pyramids, government buildings, the Cathedral, floating gardens, and University City. Each student enjoyed the bronze tan that they received from Acapulco's penetrating sun.

The entire trip proved to be educational as well as enjoyable. Each Spanish student took home memories that he will never forget.

The "gringos" visiting Mexico were C. Schubert, D. Harris, Mrs. Gottschalk, K. Hogan, K. McAfee, C. Green, K. Little, L. Wallace, T. Bryan, and C. Clodfelter.

Officers are Connie Green, Sec.; Mary Bock, Treas; Steve Baker, V. Pres.; and Elaine Oney, Pres.

Sinnet, J. Smith, D. Stockton, J. Suttan, J. Tippin.

Officers—E. Oney (Treas.), T. Harbison (Sec.), Mr. Risk (Spons.), L. Sutherlin (V. Pres.), and J. Harbison (Pres.).

Mark lights his torch of knowledge.

The National Honor Society was very productive this year. Funds were continually being added to its treasury as a result of the morning milk and donut sales and the afternoon sale of snacks. At the annual initiation of new members, the Honor Society was proud to present Miss Jill Smith as its guest speaker. Her speech inspired all to "Climb Every Mountain" and strive to reach every goal they set for themselves. Seniors Elaine Oney, Beth Henon, Lora Summers, and Lisa Sutherlin gave speeches on character, leadership, scholarship, and service. This year's National Honor Society represented North Putnam proudly.

COCKNEY Resounds Through N.P. Auditorium

"... Not too hard, this is borrowed furniture."

The Thespian Troupe presented last fall "Pygmalion", a drama, written by George Bernard Shaw. The setting for the play was London, England, taking place sometime around the turn of the century. Professor Henry Higgins, (Mark Kays) an accomplished teacher of phonetics accepts a bet from Colonel Pickering (Todd VanVactor) to teach a poor girl, Liza Doolittle (Lora Summers), how to speak proper English. Higgins accepts the challenge not thinking of how this new arrangement would affect the lives of his mother, Mrs. Higgins (Sarah Noland), Liza's father Alfred Doolittle (Brad Malayer), his reluctant housekeeper Mrs. Pierce (Lenay McGaughey) and the lives of the English aristocrats.

Throughout the play, Liza and the Professor's personalities clash. Liza wants affection and Higgins the model woman. The ending of the play leaves the audience hanging, not knowing if Liza and Higgins ever declare their love for each other.

"The old cold shoulder!"

Art And Media Clubs Work For Better School

Prayer Breakfast, Math Club Add To School's Program

Math Club Members are: (Sponsor) J. Myers, C. Schubert, D. Chandler, D. Weaver, C. Miller, E. Oney, D. Everts; Row 2: L. Sutherlin, M. Bock, D. Plunkett, B. Terhune, Y. Priest, C. Coopner, T. Davies, L. Lawhorn; Row 3: T. Heckel, D. Fischer, T. Strader, C. Clodfelter.

Prayer Breakfast Officers: S. Steward (Spon.) D. Miller, K. Clodfelter, K. Roberts, R. Pickel.

Prayer Breakfast, which has been a weekly event at North Putnam for several years, was more openly active this year.

Students who attended each Wednesday morning, put up signs in the cafeteria and on the lockers of those who attended Prayer Breakfast. Because of this "advertisement" more students frolicked to the meetings, not only for the good breakfast they were served, but for the "word" that was being spread.

Thespian Members Cast In Fall Play

Thespian members are kneeling: T. White (Sec.), B. Hennon, R. Clodfelter (V-Pres.), D. Lawler, L. Summers (Pres), and L. Sutherlin; Standing: Mrs. Faulkner (Spon.), C. Todd (Clerk), B. Malayer, M. Clodfelter, B. Steward, C. Schubert, B. Steward, M. Bock, and T. Davies (Treas.).

The OEA members were kept very busy this year with various activities. Throughout the year, they held a mother daughter pitch-in dinner and a hay ride/weiner roast. Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter baskets were made and delivered to an orphanage, needy families, and Senior Citizens. OEA week was a busy time with activities everyday. "Kiss Day" was a big hit! Each member possessed three Hershey's Kisses which they gave to anyone who could tell them what OEA stood for. Most active members for OEA week were Jan Fordice, and Kendra Logan. At the week's close, Laren Livesay was chosen by the girls as OEA Sweetheart.

OEA Officers Are: M. Bock (Sec.), K. McBride (Junior V-Pres.), J. Fordice (V-Pres.), K. Logan (Pres.), T. Barnhart (Soph. V-Pres.), L. Gordon (Hist.), A. Fowler (Treas.), T. Robbins (Parli.).

aspect. The weather, unlike the previous year, was outstanding. The week preceding the game saw the school spirit rise to a fever pitch and a large crowd turned out to witness the game. Kathy Greene was crowned queen during halftime ceremonies. She reigned as the Cougars crushed the South Putnam Eagles 41 to 6.

The sirens were kept busy as they celebrated each Cougar touchdown.

The Girls' Basketball teams put in an extra amount of effort this year. The Seniors helped pull the team together and they will be greatly missed. The B-team looks hopeful to help the team next year. Shar George received the MVP while Jenny Storm captured the Mental Attitude award. S. George also made the WCC team and R. Jeffries and George were voted to the All-County team. The girls really enjoyed playing for their coaches this year. Team work was a big factor for the teams.

Cheerleaders Always On The Go

The Freshman cheerleaders pictured at the right are from left to right—Belinda VanBibber, Julie McCammack, Lori O'Hair, and Jenny Boyers. These spirited gals won 1st place at the Putnam County Cheerleading Contest. Along with the Varsity, B-team, and Jr. High squads, the Freshmen squad also participated in the ISU Cheerleading Clinic. They too cheered their basketball team to the County Championship. The freshmen cheerleaders contributed much enthusiasm to school spirit this year. They worked hard practicing new cheers and making posters.

B-Team Cheerleaders are: left to right—Janie Tippin, Susie Weaver, Theresa Murphy, and Brenda Wood. They were awarded 2nd place at the Putnam County Cheerleading Contest. They also participated in the ISU Cheerleading Clinic Contest in which they received another 2nd place trophy. They had the pleasure of cheering their basketball team on to the County Championship.
