Mask Updates

The information in this link from the CDC is great information on how to select, wear, wash, and care for your mask.

<https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/prevent-getting-sick/about-face-coverings.html>

Please note that “gaiters” are not approved face coverings, as previously thought, unless they have loops to secure around the ears. Below is an approved gaiter style mask.

Enjoy this long weekend and we can't wait to see you on Tuesday.
