

Social Studies

North Putnam Elementary Schools provide a balanced Social Studies education that teaches social understanding, and influences students to become effective citizens. North Putnam is committed to providing research based instructional approaches that give students the ability obtain the understanding of global and cultural understandings through historical and current contexts. The Indiana Academic Standards is a guide for the development of the elementary curriculum for North Putnam Schools.