

Science

Both North Putnam Elementary Schools provide research based strategies, a scientific inquiry approach, STEM and project based instruction. This prepares students to use scientific habits of mind to solve problems in their everyday lives as well as to tackle society's most complex issues. Through these high-quality experiences, students acquire a rich knowledge of science and appreciate its relevance and significance to their lives beyond the classroom.