

N

ORGANIZATION

LEADERSHIP (Continuous Improvement)

The Regional Office of Education will be committed to the development of continuous leadership and improvement through the collection of data, evaluation and review of the information, and implementation of an improvement plan and processes.

It is the responsibility of the Regional Superintendent to oversee this plan and process and lead the administrators and employees in its development.