

GENERAL ADMINISTRATIONADMINISTRATIVE CODE OF ETHICS

The Regional Office of Education, in an effort to operate ROE #9 under the highest ethical standards, adopts the following code of ethics for the Regional Superintendent.

In his/her capacity as executive officer of ROE #9, educational leader of the schools in the Region, and liaison between the Regional Office personnel and the schools in ROE #9, the Regional Superintendent shall:

1. Observe the laws, rules, and regulations as dictated by the statutes of the State of Illinois.
2. Observe the Regional Office of Education policies, rules, and regulations as adopted.
3. Support and assist the school districts in ROE #9 in their tasks of policymaking, educational planning, and goal evaluation.
4. Evaluate the Regional Office of Education goal achievement with a realistic and considerate attitude.
5. Maintain confidentiality of privileged information.
6. Develop a communication system, which facilitates understanding between the schools in ROE #9, the staff, and community.
7. Welcome and encourage the positive actions of citizen participation in Regional Office activities.
8. Recognize that personal values, strengths, and goals must provide the motivation for effective Regional Office of Education management.
9. Provide a leadership role model.
