Dispute Resolution Procedure For Homeless Students

This document contains the requirements for the local McKinney-Vento dispute resolution procedure, as well as a model procedure that a district can customize. Additionally, there are two templates. One is for written notification of district decisions regarding McKinney-Vento eligibility, school selection or enrollment. Another is a template for the appeal of a district decision. Districts should consult with its legal counsel and customize the model procedure as needed. This procedure should be placed on district letterhead.

Requirements for Local Dispute Resolution Procedure

While the included model dispute resolution procedure contains several elements that are strongly encouraged in a district procedure, districts must include these items in its dispute resolution procedure when addressing disputes under the McKinney-Vento Act regarding eligibility, school selection or enrollment:

1) If a dispute arises over eligibility, school selection or enrollment, the district or school immediately must enroll the child/unaccompanied youth in the school in which he or she is seeking enrollment, pending resolution of the dispute, which includes all available appeals. See USC 1143(g)(3)(E)(i); PL 107-110, Section 722(g)(3)(E)(iv). The definition of enrollment as used above is "attending classes and participating fully in school activities."

2) Upon determination of eligibility, enrollment or school selection, the district must provide a written explanation of any decisions to parents, guardians or unaccompanied youth. This explanation must include the rights of the parent, guardian or unaccompanied youth to appeal such decisions.

3) The parent, guardian or unaccompanied youth will be referred to the designated local liaison. The liaison will carry out the dispute resolution process as quickly as possible after receiving notice of the dispute.
Local Dispute Resolution Model Procedure

The Arkansas Department of Education recommends the following considerations and actions for a district to take when addressing a dispute regarding eligibility, school selection or enrollment under the McKinney-Vento Act. The model procedure below meets requirements for the local dispute resolution procedure presented in the McKinney-Vento Act through practical actions. A district should adapt this model procedure, in consultation with its legal counsel, and place it on district letterhead.

Steps for addressing disputes regarding eligibility, school selection or enrollment:

1) If a dispute arises over eligibility, school selection or enrollment, [DISTRICT] will immediately enroll the child/unaccompanied youth in the school in which he/she is seeking enrollment, pending resolution of the dispute, including all appeals. [PL 107-110, Section 722(g)(3)(E)(i),(iv)]. The Act defines enrollment as "attending classes and participating fully in school activities."

2) [DISTRICT] staff will refer the student, parent or guardian to the [DISTRICT] local liaison who will initiate the dispute resolution process as quickly as possible. The local liaison will make sure that the district follows the dispute resolution process. The liaison also must ensure that unaccompanied youth receive the same rights to appeal a district’s eligibility, school selection or enrollment decision as parents and guardians. The role of the [DISTRICT] local liaison is to assist the student, parent or guardian through the duration of the dispute resolution process. The process will be open and transparent among those involved.

3) Upon determination of eligibility, enrollment or school selection, [DISTRICT] will provide a written explanation of any decisions made to parents, guardians or unaccompanied youth. The written explanation will be easy to understand and free of jargon. When appropriate, the [DISTRICT] will translate the decision into the recipient’s dominant language. At a minimum, the written explanation of how the district reached its decision regarding eligibility, school selection or enrollment will include:
   • A description of the action that the district proposed or refused;
   • An explanation of why the district proposed or refused the action;
   • A description of any other options the district considered;
   • The reasons why the district rejected any other options;
   • A description of any other factors relevant to the district’s decision and information related to the eligibility or best interest determination.
This includes the facts, witnesses and evidence relied upon and their sources;
   • Appropriate timelines to ensure any relevant deadlines are met;
   • Contact information for the [DISTRICT] local liaison and state homeless education coordinator and a brief description of their roles; and
   • Notice to the recipient of their right to file an appeal, including step-by-step instructions of how to file an appeal.
Addendum 1 provides a template for the written notification of a decision.

4) The student, parent or guardian has the right to appeal any district determination of eligibility, school selection or enrollment. [DISTRICT] local liaison will guide the student, parent or guardian through the entire dispute resolution process. The liaison will assist in both the local and state-level appeals process, if necessary. This includes recording evidence that will be used to write an appeal if a parent, guardian or unaccompanied youth cannot do so by him or herself and providing access to school materials, such as copiers and fax machines. Addendum 2 provides a template for the written appeal of the district’s eligibility, school selection or enrollment decision.

5) Following an appeal at the local level, if the student, parent or guardian still disagrees with the determination, they may appeal to the Arkansas Department of Education. [DISTRICT] local liaison will forward all written documentation and related documents to the state coordinator for Homeless Education at the Arkansas Department of Education. It is strongly encouraged that when appealing to the Department Addendum 2 is used to capture all relevant information. Upon receipt of any requested documentation, the state coordinator for Homeless Education will investigate the dispute and request applicable documentation. The Arkansas Department of Education will make a decision within 15 school days from the receipt of all necessary materials. The Department will provide the final decision to the district superintendent, building principal, local liaison, and parent, guardian or unaccompanied youth. All parties must immediately adhere to the final determination.

Arkansas Department of Education Dispute Resolution Process Checklist

Before filing an appeal with the Arkansas Department of Education have you:

1) Completed your district’s entire local dispute resolution procedures; and
2) Worked with your district or local homeless liaison in completing both the local and state dispute resolution process. Your local liaison should be able to provide you with relevant information to guide you through the state-level dispute resolution process. Assistance may include a list of legal and advocacy service providers, providing the contact information for the state coordinator for Homeless Education, recording the family’s experience and preparing the appeal on your behalf.

The following is a list of steps to follow when filing an appeal with the Arkansas Department of Education:

1) The parent or unaccompanied youth who received the decision or the local liaison shall send the appeal to the state coordinator for Homeless Education at the Arkansas Department of Education. After an appeal is sent, the local liaison should follow up with a phone call to the state homeless coordinator.
2) The state coordinator for Homeless Education will investigate the complaint, which may include contacting those involved for additional information. After gathering the necessary information, the state coordinator for Homeless Education will present the evidence to the Arkansas Department of Education.
3) The Arkansas Department of Education will make a decision within 15 school days. The Department will provide the final decision to the district superintendent, building principal, local liaison, and parent, guardian or unaccompanied youth. The letter communicating the decision will be easy to understand and, translated to the family’s dominant language. The Department's determination is final and all parties shall adhere to it.
