

Franklin High School Students will effectively.....

3) Solve problems in a variety of contexts.

Category	4	3	2	1
TOOLS	Identifies and locates a variety of tools and information needed to solve a problem.	Identified and locates the tool and information needed to solve a problem.	Can find a tool or information but is unclear how to use them to solve problem.	Does not accurately identify and make use of appropriate tools
PROBLEM	Develops and evaluates the problem using multiple procedures	Develops and evaluates the problem using a single procedure.	Accurately identifies the problem to be solved but cannot identify working hypothesis	Does not accurately identify the problem to be solved.
RESULTS / EVALUATION	Results are organized in a way that clearly shows their connection to the identified problem. Results are accurate.	Results are organized in a way that shows their connection to the identified problem. Results are acceptable.	Results are not organized or do not show their connection to the identified problem. Results are not accurate.	Results are not organized and do not show their connection to the identified problem. Results are not accurate or acceptable.