LADY INDIAN CULTURE

1. WE > ME (we do what is best for the team all the time - might not be the best for me or you, but if it is best for the team, we do it - we make sacrifices for each other - we do things for each other)
2. We look to find a way to lift up a teammate, and never do or say anything intentionally that would be hurtful to anyone
3. We treat coaches, teammates, opponents, teachers, and officials with the same type of respect that they wish to be treated themselves.
4. We conduct ourselves in a manner that will promote respect, goodwill, and admiration of our character from everyone we come into contact with. A positive image of a Lady Indian Basketball player is sought in everything we do.
5. We "leave it better than we found it" - bench, gym, people, program.
6. We do more than our fair share of the work.
7. We are concerned with being/doing our best so others can be their best - example - we dedicate ourselves to hard work, individual improvement, team improvement, and put a high priority on maintaining excellent personal health and conditioning not only for ourselves but our teammates.
8. We don't complain. We practice thankfulness
9. We believe RIGHT NOW means everything - focus on the next action ONLY
