Dear Principal:

SUBJECT: Scholarship Application

Our organization is pleased to inform you that the graduating 12th-grade seniors within the Central Savannah River Area are being granted an opportunity to apply with the potential of receiving a Barack Court #233 Jayla J. Scholarship. This scholarship was established to recognize outstanding high school students who demonstrate a financial need and have achieved a positive academic record. The award value and other information about the scholarship are enclosed within the packet accompanying this letter.

To receive this scholarship, interested students must complete the application and its additional requirements. First, please review and sign the enclosed Release of Information Form. Second, we ask that students mail their completed applications and references to the address listed below. Barack Court #233 believes that every student has the potential to make a difference in the world. Therefore, the Court is interested in hearing about the student, their academic plans, activities, career goals, and what this scholarship means.

The scholarship will be awarded directly to the student upon presenting a college acceptance letter and receipt of their Release of Information Form. Please deliver or send these to Barack Court #233 (address listed below) by February 28, 2023. All applications must be received, even if hand-carried, mailed, or postmarked, before the close of business on 2/28/2023. Late submissions will not be accepted nor considered.

We hope your 12th-grade graduating seniors will apply.

Sincerely,

Barack Court #233 Scholarship Committee

Scholarship Release of Information Form

The Barack Court #233 Jayla J. Scholarship Committee may select you to receive a scholarship for the 2022-2023 award year. This award is made possible due to the generosity of our donors and is based on your academic achievements and service to your community.

The Barack Court #233 Jayla J. Scholarship Committee makes every effort to protect the privacy of our educational scholarship recipients. Scholarship donors very much appreciate knowing the students who directly benefit from their scholarship funds. By allowing Barack Court #233 and/ or its Scholarship Committee to release your name and academic information, you are helping us to connect donors with our students. We would also like to share this information with the offices and organizations that work so very hard to raise scholarship funds for Barack Court #233 and for publicity releases.

Your cooperation will help to increase the funds available to assist current and future Barack Court #233 Scholarship recipients with their education. This simple act helps to ensure that more students will continue to benefit from these generous gifts. In addition, when the Scholarship Committee or the Court's Members become aware of additional scholarships, we will forward your information to increase your chances of obtaining additional funding from external organizations.

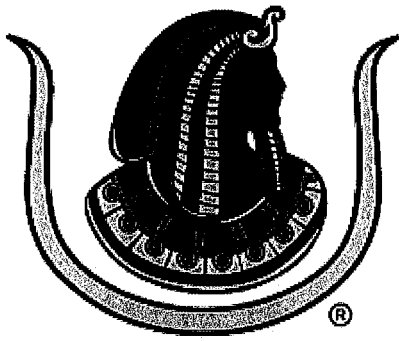

By my signature below, I authorize the release of my name, directory, and academic information, and email address on file with Barack Court #233 and/ or its Jayla J. Scholarship Committee to scholarship donors and others in conjunction with the scholarship I may receive.
