

ACE - VIOLENT & THREATENING BEHAVIOR

Threatening Behavior

A true threat is a statement made orally, in writing, or using another medium that would be perceived by a reasonable person to be a serious expression of intent to harm, commit assault, or damage school property.

Reporting

All threats should be taken seriously. Any student or employee who has knowledge of a threat shall report it to a supervisor (i.e., a teacher or school staff member for students) or the Superintendent. District employees that receive a threat report shall notify the Superintendent. Failure to report a known threat may result in disciplinary consequences up to and including suspension for students and termination of employment for staff in accordance with policy, law, and, when applicable, the negotiated agreement. Threat reporters should be available to provide a statement to law enforcement.

Threat Assessment

Upon receipt of a threat report, the Superintendent shall notify law enforcement. Together, the Superintendent and law enforcement shall determine if the report constitutes a true threat as defined above based on, but not limited to, the following criteria:

1. The detail, specificity, context, and content of the threat;
2. The amount of disruption the threat has caused or may cause to the educational environment;
3. When the source of the threat can be identified, the individual's:
 - a. State of mind;
 - b. Relationship with peers;
 - c. Age;
 - d. Domestic life;
 - e. Ability to carry out the treat (e.g., access to weapons);
 - f. Past behavior.
4. If any laws have been violated;
5. The identity and potential motives of the individual reporting the threat.

The threat assessment may involve interviews with district staff, students, and parents. When law enforcement and/or Superintendent, having considered the totality of the facts obtained through the threat assessment, verifies that a threat is true, the District shall take necessary and timely measures to safeguard students, staff, and district property.

If the Superintendent and law enforcement determine that the threat is not credible, the Superintendent shall institute any further action deemed necessary.

Disciplinary Consequences for Threatening Behavior

1. Regular Education Students: A student who is found to have made a true threat will be subject to disciplinary measures, including, but not limited to suspension and/or expulsion. When deemed to be a necessary safety precaution, the District may require alternative placement or appoint supervision during the periods of suspension and/or expulsion for threatening behavior.
2. Special Education Students: Special education student found to have made a true threat will be discipline in accordance with applicable policies and laws pertaining to the discipline of special education students.
3. Staff: Employees found to have made a true threat shall be subject to disciplinary consequences up to and including termination of employment in accordance with policy, law, and when applicable, the negotiated agreement.

Students and employees may also be to subject to the filing of criminal charges and/or referred to counseling services for treatment.

Violent Behavior

The District prohibits all acts of violence and aggression, including, but not limited to, possession of a weapon or dangerous instrument, physical assault, vandalism of district property, stalking, gang affiliation and/or activity, terroristic acts.

Violators of this policy shall be subject to disciplinary consequences, determined by the seriousness of the act, including, but not limited to, expulsion for students, discharge for employees, and exclusion from school premises in accordance with applicable policy and law. In addition, the District may take legal action against the perpetrator.

Student and employees may also be subject to the filing of criminal charges and/or referred to counseling services for treatment.

Complementary Documents

- FFD, Carrying Weapons
- FFK, Suspension & Expulsion
- FFK-BR, Suspension & Expulsion Regulations