2. The Building Administrator shall approve or disapprove the material. If the Building Administrator rejects a request to distribute material, the decision may be appealed to the Superintendent. If the Superintendent rejects the appeal, it may be appealed to the Board. 3. Requests to distribute noncurricular material in the classroom and/or in areas that are reasonably forecasted to substantially disrupt the educational environment shall be denied.
4. Material approved for distribution must include a disclaimer stating that the District does not endorse, approve, or sponsor the activities, views, or events promoted in the material. This disclaimer shall be affixed in a prominent location on the material.

The Building Administrator shall document reasons for denying a student's request to distribute noncurricular material.

The Building Administrator shall provide notice of his/her decision to approve or deny a noncurricular material distribution request to the requestor within in a reasonable timeframe. The Building Administrator shall provide the Superintendent with this documentation.
