

Monday School (AOL)

Additional Opportunity for Learning

In an effort to help our students be successful, we will be conducting Monday School, Additional Opportunity for Learning (AOL) starting October 19, 2020. This is available for all students, grades 6-12. This will be an opportunity for students to complete assignments and receive extra help. The administration may deem it mandatory for a student to attend based on a behavior, tardiness, attendance, or academic issue. (Per student handbook page 16) IT IS STRONGLY RECOMMENDED THAT IF A STUDENT IS ON THE INELIGIBLE LIST THAT THEY ATTEND MONDAY SCHOOL. Please note that the first day of Monday School (AOL) will be October 19, 2020.

Students who attend need to have their work gathered (please meet with your teachers on Friday to ascertain missing work.) School technology must be used to complete school work only, (PTD's are not allowed, cell phones, head phones, etc..) If you are mandated to attend Monday School you must attend from 8-11 am. Social distancing measures and masks will be enforced.
