

This Is Halloween

By Jada Davis

Halloween this year is definitely something we're not used to, but if you asked the AMES 5th grade you'd see that they're still making the best of it.

Whether they like the candy, dressing up, or if you're Jocelyn, scaring your big sister Emma, things just might not be the same. But in the midst of all this chaos, one student still said that being able to carve pumpkins and spend time watching scary movies with her family this Halloween was more than enough even if she didn't get to do all of the other stuff.

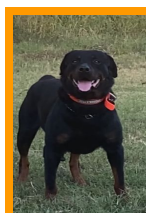

We love seeing the kids still get excited about these things even if some parts of it have to change. I wish we were all able to be as hopeful as her, and I can't wait to see what they have in store for us next month!

Halloween Fun and Reminders

By Caden Crawford

Happy Halloween everyone! On Friday, you can look forward to fun parties, dressing up, a spooky breakfast, and more! You will get to have fun going down to the fire station, and seeing your favorite teachers dress up. Remember to brush your teeth extra well, and to not eat too much candy at once. Happy Trick or Treating, stay safe!

Brutus reminds students to Trick-or-Treat with an adult and watch for cars on the roads. Bring a flashlight for Halloween safety.

To Be or Not to Be

by Jada Davis

It's Halloween, what an exciting day. A day full of candy, tricks, and best of all super fun outfits. BUT WHAT WILL I WEAR?! Do I go as a ghost, or maybe a witch, I just don't know what to pick.

Thankfully Mrs. Yoos' first-grade class has their costumes all planned out. You could dress up as something scary and go as Scream like Jacobi or Dracula like Makayla. Although, maybe you want to go as someone who saves the day and dress up as a Power Ranger like Ryker. Or maybe, you'll dress up as Elsa like Emily. However, if those aren't your style, you could always dress up like Ezra and be a zombie nurse or Ainsley and be a pirate.

The choice is yours. But let's not forget about the wonderful Mrs. Yoos who's going as Daphne from Scooby-Doo. So now that you have some ideas, it's time to ask you. What will you be....or not be.

4th-grade Shenanigans

By Anna Beckwith and BrookeLynn McDowell

Halloween is finally here! The fourth graders this year all want to be vampires, Marios, and dirt bikers for Halloween. The fourth graders' favorite thing to do on Halloween night is trick or treat and get lots of candy. Because of the viruses this year some of the kids are doing a Halloween easter egg hunt. How fun is that. The fourth graders' favorite Halloween candy is Kit Kats, Nerds, Hershey's, and Snickers. I hope everyone has a very safe Halloween.

What Do You Want to be for Halloween?

By: Makayla Wood And Alaura Maple

We asked the second-grade students what they would like to be for Halloween. A large amount of the second grade wanted to be a vampire, but there were also a few rainbow unicorns.

We also asked them what their favorite candy was and most of them chose a sucker (that's what we were handing out)! Some also said they like Reeses and most of all Kit Kats. We hope to see everyone out having a safe Halloween, The yearbook team is looking forward to seeing all the costumes everyone comes up with! Have a safe Halloween everyone!!

Halloween time in the 3rd grade!

By Kyra O'Connor

Mrs.Reinhardt's 3rd-grade class is excited for Halloween. We asked the class what some of their favorite things were, most said candy, but dressing up and going to the fire station has to be the other's favorites.

They will be celebrating Halloween by walking down to the fire station and collecting candy. As this class dresses up and heads to the fire station, we will be seeing two witches, aliens that glow, and many more scary fun costumes, including their teacher's costume! Mrs. Reinhardt will be dressing up as Viola Swamp.

They were very excited to celebrate Halloween and go trick or treating. Be on the lookout for pictures of their amazing costumes!

Halloween Spirit

By Natalie Davis

The Altoona-Midway Pre-K class is full of the Halloween spirit. They were so happy to talk to us and show us all the fun Halloween activities they have done. They painted pumpkins and made ghost/candy corn using their painted feet!! We heard many different ideas for costumes. Being a witch or a princess has been very popular.

It's safe to say that they are all in on this exciting holiday!!

Lots of Excitement on Halloween

By Payge Cunningham

The kindergarten class of Altoona-Midway was talkative when I asked every single one of them, "What is your favorite thing about Halloween?"

Chloe was very cheerful when she said that her favorite part of Halloween was the spider webs! Jesse and Gannon had the same answer and they said that they absolutely loved going trick-or-treating. Teryn said that her favorite part of Halloween is all the candy she gets! Last but not least, I asked Emma and Natalie and they said they both loved dressing up in their favorite costumes!
