

HOLD HARMLESS AND INDEMNIFICATION POLICY

There are certain responsibilities or duties required of the governing body or an administrative employee of West Washington School Corporation, out of which a suit may arise, and the Indiana Code provides that in certain circumstances that the School Corporation may defend the member of the governing body or administrative employee being sued.

Therefore, the policy of the West Washington School Corporation is that the School Corporation will defend any member of the governing body or any administrative employee, of the School Corporation in any suit arising out of the performance of his or her duties, while in the employment with the West Washington School Corporation, provided that the member of the governing body or administrative employee, was acting in good faith and according to the law, the policies of the district, and his or her duties.

Furthermore, any member of the governing body or administrative employee, shall be saved harmless from any liability, cost or damage (including but not limited to attorney's fees) in any suit arising out of the performance of his or her duties, except where such liability cost or damage is predicated on, or arises out of the bad faith of such member or employee or is a claim or judgment based on his malfeasance in office or employment.
