	Describe current level of development:		We currently have agendas for most of our PLC meetings. Faculty meetings and Leadership Team meetings always have agendas. Minutes are kept during PLC meetings but no faculty meetings. PLC minutes are kept electronically in google folder. All other meetings keep agendas and minutes
Plan	Assigned	to:	Alisa Gray
	How it wil	l look when fully met:	Agendas and minutes will be kept for all meetings during the 2015-16 school year. Time keepers will keep the meetings on track. Agendas will be created and distributed prior to meetings.

		Comments:	Once the procedures are in place, the routines will be established. These procedures should be in place for any type of meeting on our campus to further enhance communication among the staff. This would particularly be helpful for administration or staff members who may not attend every meeting. 1. PLC minutes and agendas are kept on the google drive in grade level folders. 2. A timekeeper was assigned to each grade level. Alternate time keepers were also assigned. 3. At the end of each PLC meeting the agenda for the next week developed and added to the google drive. Teachers are able to view, make comments, and add topics to this shared document. 4. The grade level chair person is responsible for typing the agenda, recording the minutes, and sharing the document in google drive. If the grade level chair is not present, another teacher will open the shared document and post new information. 5. Agendas for the next meeting are available to all team members at the close of each PLC meeting in the shared google grade level file.

	Describe current level of development:		Students below grade level are monitored monthly through the RTI process. The school schedule has been designed to built in intervention times. The PE teacher is working with 3 literacy groups during the afternoons. The paraprofessionals are working under the direction of classroom teachers to provide interventions. The computer lab is available to provide additional interventions each day. Reading Interventionists work with first and second grade students who are below grade level in small and 1:1 groups.
Plan	Assigned	d to:	Vickie Easley
	How it will look when fully met:		All classroom teachers, specialists, and paraprofessionals will be trained to address dyslexia markers, ELL students, and to help children that are below grade level. The intervention plan will consist of targeted interventions to address student deficits. The RTI committee will meet monthly to discuss student progress and adjust plans as needed. The school schedule is adjusted as needed to allow for daily interventions. Intervention groups will be flexible based on student needs.

Plan	Assigned to:	LeeAnn Clay
	How it will look when fully met:	Curriculum nights for parents will be established during the 2nd nine weeks to address parent questions and concerns about instruction and curriculum. At the beginning of the year teachers will review the materials that we have for checkout as parent involvement. Add a blurb in the volunteer packet about these resources so parents will know about them. Add info about the parent homework resources in the EEE monthly newsletter. Create a parent survey to see what types of materials parents would prefer to use at home. Send home a summer readiness packet and next grade expectations. Determine if the counselor can find free resources, magazines, etc. for parents.
	Target Date:	12/19/2016
	Tasks:
