The Panthers uses big third inning to beat the Lexington Bulldogs, 8-0

The Panthers jumped out to an early lead on the Lexington Bulldogs and captured an 8-0 victory on Friday.

Seven runs in the first three innings allowed the Panthers to put the game away early.

A single by Levi Scott during the first inning helped the Panthers put some runs on the board early.

The Panthers' Scott was perfect at the dish, going 3-3.

The Panthers' Cody Williams kept the Lexington Bulldogs off the scoreboard for all four innings he was on the rubber. He pitched a shutout, allowing no opposing players to cross the plate on four hits while ringing up two.

Jones ended up on the wrong side of the pitching decision, charged with the loss. He lasted just one inning, walked one, struck out none, and allowed one run.

The Panthers built upon their lead with six runs in the third. The inning looked promising, as Scott doubled, scoring Dylan Verser and Triston Herron to kick things off.

The Panthers added one more run in the top of the fourth when Scott stole home.

He tripled in the first inning and singled in the sixth inning.

Levi Scott worked out of four difficult moments for the Panthers. He pitched seven innings and allowed three earned runs on five hits. Scott faced his toughest situation in the fifth inning.

Dobbs was charged with the loss. He allowed seven runs in seven innings, walked three and struck out 11.

The game was never in doubt after the first, as the Panthers scored three runs on a groundout by Stanton James and a two-run triple by Voyles.

After pushing across two runs in the bottom of the fifth, the Fletcher Wildcats faced just a 4-2 deficit. A hit by pitch gave the Fletcher Wildcats life. But, Scott got Dobbs to ground out to end the inning.

The Panthers increased their lead with three runs in the seventh. A error scored Kane Martin for the inning's first run. That was followed up by Triston Herron's double, scoring Dylan Verser.

The Panthers muster 8 hits, drop 8-2 contest to the Minco Bulldogs

Austin Winfrey went 2-3 at the plate, but the Panthers fell 8-2 to the Minco Bulldogs at Hinton Jv tourney on Friday.

The Minco Bulldogs' Ringo, Wallis, Baade and Rose combined for 11 hits and seven RBIs.

Nathan Ratcliff took the loss for the Panthers. He lasted just one-third of an inning, walked none, struck out none, and allowed one run.

The top of the first saw the Panthers take an early lead, 1-0. A single by Austin Winfrey, plating Hayden Savage started the inning off.

The game's last lead went to the Minco Bulldogs thanks to a third inning rally that saw three runs cross the plate on an RBI double by Wallis and two singles.

The Minco Bulldogs brought home two runs in the fourth inning, and matched that run total in the sixth. In the fourth, the Minco Bulldogs scored on a two-run double by Baade, scoring Ringo and Wallis.

Alex Longhorns easily handled the Panthers pitching as six hitters combined for 16 hits, 15 RBIs and 12 runs scored.

Hayden Savage took the loss for the Panthers. He allowed seven runs in 1 1/3 innings, walked one and struck out one.

The top of the first saw the Panthers take an early lead, 2-0. Austin Winfrey singled to start things off before Blake Wildman tripled, bringing home Austin Winfrey. More runs came home for the Panthers when Wildman scored on a groundout by Savage.

Alex Longhorns never trailed after scoring eight runs in the second on two doubles and three singles.

A one-run third inning helped bring the Panthers within three. An RBI single by Caden Bartlett set off the Panthers rally. But, Huggins got Blake Ryans to ground out to end the inning.

It didn't take long for Alex Longhorns to answer as it scored eight runs of its own in the third. Alex Longhorns scored on an RBI double by Huggins, a two-run double by Alcorn, a wild pitch, a bases loaded walk by Kane Martin, and a two-run single by Huggins.

The Panthers jumped out to an early lead on Central Marlow Bronchos and captured a 10-1 victory on Tuesday at W.L. Jackson Field.

With six runs in the first three innings, the Panthers left no doubt about the eventual outcome.

A two-run double by Stanton James, an RBI single by Dylan Hargus, and an RBI single by Calin Altman during the first inning supplied the early offense for the Panthers.

Levi Scott had two extra-base hits for the Panthers. He tripled in the third inning, singled in the fourth inning, and doubled in the sixth inning.

Kevin Voyles got it done on the rubber on the way to a win. He allowed one run over six innings. Voyles struck out two, walked three and gave up eight hits.

The Panthers' Dylan Hargus, Scott and James combined for eight hits and nine RBIs.

Jones ended up on the wrong side of the pitching decision, charged with the loss. He allowed seven runs in 3 2/3 innings, walked two and struck out one.

The Panthers piled on two more runs in the bottom of the third. A ground out scored Scott to get the Panthers on the board in the inning.

The Panthers survived Central Marlow Bronchos' surge and put up three runs of their own in the fourth. The Panthers scored on a two-run single by Scott and an RBI single by James.

The Panthers increased their lead with one run in the sixth. James singled, scoring Hayden Savage to start the inning. That was followed up by James' single, bringing home Savage.
