Early lead gives the Panthers victory over the Macomb Hornets, 10-0

Spread the Word

The Panthers jumped out to an early lead on the Macomb Hornets and captured a 10-0 victory on Thursday at District Tourn.

With five runs in the first three innings, the Panthers left no doubt about the eventual outcome.

An RBI double by Levi Scott, an RBI double by Stanton James, and an error in the first inning and a two-run single by Scott during the second inning helped the Panthers put some runs on the board early.

Triston Herron had a busy day at the plate, collecting two extra-base hits. He doubled in the second inning, tripled in the fourth inning, and singled in the sixth inning.

The Macomb Hornets had no answer for Kevin Voyles, who kept runners off the basepaths in his appearance. The Macomb Hornets managed just one hit off of Voyles, who allowed no earned runs, walked none and struck out eight during his five innings of work.

#3 was charged with the loss. He allowed 10 runs in 5 1/3 innings, walked none and struck out none.

The Panthers increased their lead with three runs in the fourth. The inning got off to a hot start when Voyles singled, bringing home Scott.

The Panthers added two more runs in the bottom of the sixth. A steal of home scored Herron to get the Panthers on the board in the inning. That was followed up by James' double, plating Austin Winfrey.
