

SCHOOL DISTRICT LEGAL STATUS

The United States Constitution leaves to the individual states responsibility for public education.

In South Dakota, the legislature is charged by the Constitution “to establish and maintain a general and uniform system of public schools” which is open to all children and free from sectarian control.

The State Board of Education is responsible for the adoption of all policies for the government of the Division of Elementary and Secondary Education, and for the adoption and implementation of regulations for supervising the elementary and secondary schools.

School Districts exist for the purpose of operating a school or schools to provide the people of each local community adequate opportunity to a free public elementary and secondary education program.

This School District constitutes a school corporation under the name of Newell School District, No. 09-2 of Butte County, South Dakota.
