

Public Participation

Any application and any required policies, procedures, program evaluations, program plans, and program reports are readily available to parents and other members of the public through written request sent to the superintendent and by contacting the state office of the superintendent. A notice regarding the availability of public records will be placed on the district's Web site.