Privacy Notice

The North Little Rock Educator's Federal Credit Union is committed to serving the financial needs of our members. Protecting personal information and using it in a manner consistent with your expectations is a priority for our Credit Union. Protection of your privacy is a matter that we take very seriously.

We collect nonpublic information about our members from the following sources: information we receive from you on the Member Application and other forms; information about your transactions with us or others; and information we receive from a consumer reporting agency.

We may disclose all of the information we collect, as described above, to companies that perform marketing services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements.

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our members and former members to anyone, except as required by law.

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.

The North Little Rock Educator's Federal Credit Union is committed to protecting the privacy of its members. Members can help by following these simple guidelines:

Use caution when disclosing your account numbers, social security numbers, etc. to other persons. If someone calls you explaining the call is on behalf of the Credit Union and asks for your account number, you should beware. Credit Union staff will have access to your information and will not need to ask for it.

Keep information with us current. If your address or work location changes, please let us know. It is important that we have current contact information. If we detect potentially fraudulent or unauthorized activity, or use of your account, we will attempt to contact you immediately.

Let us know if you have any questions. Please do not hesitate to call us – we are here to serve you.
